A/AS Level English Literature A for AQA Student Book Russell Carey, Anne Fairhall, Tom Rank, 2015-11-12 Created specifically for the AQA A AS level English literature A specification for first teaching from 2015 this print student book is suitable for all abilities providing stretch opportunities for the more able and additional scaffolding for those who need it Helping bridge the gap between GCSE and A level the unique three part structure focuses on texts within a particular time period and supports students in interpreting texts and reflecting on how writers make meaning Text in Context A. D. H. Mayes, 2000-09-07 The scholarly study of the Old Testament is now marked by a rich diversity of approaches and concerns In the last two decades an interest in the text and the implications for its interpretation is no longer the preserve of a single scholarly community while the reconstruction of the history of the people from whom it derived has been transformed by new methods This new book published under the auspices of the Society for Old Testament Study reflects these new approaches and developments and has a particular concentration on literary and historical study. Thus it not only clearly recognizes the diversity now inherent in Old Testament study but also welcomes the integration into its field of the wide range of approaches available in current literary and historical investigation The study of the biblical text and how it is received and interpreted by its various readerships has a certain logical priority over the study of its historical background and authorship Yet an ongoing investigation of issues relating to the latter cannot await definitive conclusions on the former So essays on the text and its reception discuss primary issues which arise in Old Testament study while those on background and authorship reflect the continued vitality of and the fresh perspective possible in more traditional scholarly concerns Murmur of History Fiona Schouten, 2010 After decades of uncomfortable silence Spain has now started dealing with its violent twentieth century past In recent years a vibrant memory discourse has emerged in Spanish society the number of films TV series newspaper articles history books and memorials dedicated to the Civil War of 1936 1939 and the ensuing dictatorship of Franco has increased dramatically Literature has also played its part in provoking and maintaining this memory boom and as a consequence the study of contemporary Spanish novels has started revolving around guestions on the responsibility of the author on the impact of literature in society on its role in shaping memories and on its ethical status This book takes up these questions in an attempt to combine the outlook of collective memory studies with the theoretical demands of Poststructuralist theories Focusing on themes such as haunting and the uncanny nostalgia the Bildungsroman genre and autobiography its author analyses memory narratives in fourteen novels by foremost Spanish authors like Javier Mar as Luis Goytisolo Enrique Vila Matas and Manuel Vicent From publisher's website GDR Literature in German Curricula and Textbooks Elizabeth Priester Steding, 2023-09-15 This book analyzes the changing portrayal of GDR literature in German Gymnasium textbooks 1985 2015 Addressing the need for textbook research to broaden its focus from GDR history to GDR literature the author presents case studies of well known GDR authors Bertolt Brecht Johannes R Becher

Anna Seghers Wolf Biermann and Christa Wolf each examining a particular aspect of the societal discourse about GDR literature and the tension between literary text and historical context Taken together the case studies reveal the frequently underestimated power of ideology in literature textbooks They also show how attempts to package these authors into simplified categories ultimately reveal the profound complexities of the GDR literary legacy By examining the clear tension between literature and politics in textbooks and curricula the author demonstrates how ideological messages are transmitted in all textbooks as well as the importance of attending to overt and covert ideology How to Read Texts Neil McCaw, 2013-09-26 Now in its second edition How to Read Texts introduces students to key critical approaches to literary texts and offers a practical introduction for students developing their own critical and close reading skills Written in a lively jargon free style it explains critical concepts approaches and ideas including Debates around critical theory The role of history and context The links between creativity and criticism The relationship between author reader and text The new edition now includes guidance on analysing a range of multi media texts including film and online media as well as the purely literary In addition to new practical examples readings exercises and checkpoints that help students to build confidence in their own critical readings of both primary and secondary texts the book now also offers guidance on writing fully formed critical essays and tips for independent research Comprehensively updated and revised throughout How to Read Texts is an indispensible guide for students making the transition to university study We Are Who We Think We Were Aaron D. Conley, 2013-08-01 Conley calls into question the outdated historical methodologies in use in Christian social ethics and outlines the consequences stemming from them By adopting the postmodern post structuralist position of historian Elizabeth Clark Conley calls ethicists to learn to read for the gaps silences and aporias existent in historical texts as well as in the histories represented by them The book calls ethicists to a critical self reflexive historiography This self criticism allows the ability to construct new histories and formulate new ethical norms for the world in which we now live Conceptual Performance Nick Kaye, 2023-12-22 Conceptual Performance explores how the radical visual art that challenged material aesthetics in the 1960s and 1970s tested and extended the limits character and concept of performance Conceptual Performance sets out the history theoretical basis and character of this genre of work through a wide range of case studies The volume considers how and why principal modes and agendas in Conceptual art in the 1960s and 1970s necessitated new engagements with performance as well as expanded notions of theatricality In doing so this book reviews and challenges prevailing histories of Conceptual art through critical frameworks of performativity and performance It also considers how Conceptual art adopted and redefined terms and tropes of theatre and performance including score document embodiment documentation relic remains and the narrative recuperation of ephemeral work While showing how performance has been integral to Conceptual art's critiques of prevailing assumptions about art's form purpose and meaning this volume also considers the reach and influence of Conceptual performance into recent thinking and practice This book will be of interest

Text, Extratext, Metatext and Paratext in Translation Valerie Pellatt, 2014-01-08 This volume brings together research on a variety of paratextual and peritextual elements of translation of German Chinese and Czech source texts The explication seen as necessary to translated texts is a part of this growing field as researchers investigate the influence of writing which purports to help the reader s understanding of a text The articles included here demonstrate the impact of paratextual and peritextual elements on the way a text is produced and received Publishers both consciously and unconsciously may manipulate the presentation of a text to appeal to a certain readership while writers of prefatorial explanatory and critical material base their paratextual interpretation on their own perceptions and political leanings The articles in the volume focus on significant literary texts by writers such as Christa Wolf and Mao Zedong Regional novels of Taiwan modern and traditional poetry and children's stories are not exempt from the power of paratext and some genres such as the literary mystification texts published in the Czech Republic are purposefully designed to mislead the reader The articles in the volume help to dispel the notion that translation and the paratext which surrounds it and of which it is a part are innocent

Williams, 2015-10-08 Williams traces the South West Africa People's Organization of Namibia across three decades in exile in Tanzania Zambia and Angola Early Medieval Text and Image Volume 1 Jennifer O'Reilly, 2019-06-17 When she died in

2016 Dr Jennifer O Reilly left behind a body of published and unpublished work in three areas of medieval studies the iconography of the Gospel Books produced in early medieval Ireland and Anglo Saxon England the writings of Bede and his older Irish contemporary Adomn n of Iona and the early lives of Thomas Becket In these three areas she explored the connections between historical texts artistic images and biblical exegesis This volume brings together nine studies of the Insular Gospel Books One of them on the iconography of the St Gall Gospels Essay 9 was left completed but unpublished on the author's death It appears here for the first time. The remaining studies published between 1987 and 2013 examine certain themes and motifs that inform the Gospel Books their implicit Christology their harmonisation of the four Gospel accounts the depiction of Christ crucified and the portrayal of St John the Evangelist Two of the Books the Durham Gospels and the Gospels of Mael Brigte receive particular attention CS1079 Opening the Research Text Elizabeth de Freitas, Kathleen Nolan, 2007-12-19 In this chapter we interrogate the debate between mathematicians and mathematics educators This debate is widely recognized in the United States for instance where the term math wars is often used in reference to the heated disagreements between mathematicians and mathematics edu tors Such recognition might suggest that this topic itself has relevance both for the academy and for educational policy pertaining to mathematics education We propose to locate this debate unavoidably whenever and wherever mathematics education is written Our aim is to show how the debate itself gives rise to the inscription mathematics education Indeed we contend that mathematics education cannot be defined outside of or prior to the debate for it is precisely through the debate that it is constituted as a domain for 1 deliberation The debate is more primordial than any epist m or domain implied by it In other words we argue that mathematics and mathematics education do not exist epistemically prior to the debate In order to engage this issue we consider a transcription of a panel debate 2 between mathematicians and mathematics educators held in Brazil in 1998 There is at least a double meaning for the word debate it may mean a meeting having a beginning and an end well localized in space and time and with a specific proposal or focus as in the following sentence I am going to see on TV the debate between Bush and Blair tomorrow at 5 pm

Making Sense of Messages Mark Stoner,2019-11-13 Making Sense of Messages now in its second edition retains the apprenticeship approach which facilitates effectively learning the complex content and skills of rhetorical theory and criticism A new chapter on The Rhetoric of Ignorance provides needed theory and examples that help students deal with the new rhetorical landscape marked by such discursive complexities as fake news whataboutism and denial of science that creates rather than reduces uncertainty in public argument A new chapter Curating and Analyzing Multimodal Mediated Rhetoric deals with problems of media criticism in the digital age It provides theory models of application and commentary that help novice critics understand and mindfully practice criticism that leads to insight not mere opinion Throughout the book extended and updated examples and commentaries are designed to promote novice to expert agency in students This textbook is ideal for introductory courses in contemporary rhetoric rhetorical criticism and critical analysis of mass media
