Common Questions and Answers About Moving

- Q. What should I do if I am not yet receiving mail at my new address?
A. If it is more than ten days after the start date of your move and no mail has arrived, call 1-800-ASK-USPS (1-800-275-8777).
- Q. Are Postal Service regulations for temporary address changes different than permanent address changes?
A. Yes. Pay special attention to your magazine and newspaper subscriptions. The Postal Service will forward these items for only 60 days. After that, if you have not notified your publisher, you will stop receiving magazines and newspapers until your Change-of-Address Order expires. Also, pay special attention to financial institutions. They often request that their mail not be forwarded. You should notify all your mailers of your temporary address and the time period during which it should be used.
- Q. How should I let my friends, family members, magazine publishers, and business correspondents know my new address?
A. Usually, magazines and business correspondence contain cards or instructions to inform them of your new address and the date you will be moving. In addition, your local post office can supply you, free of charge, with postcards that you can use as a convenient way to notify anyone of your new address and the date of your move.

As required by law, the Postal Service does not provide customer names or addresses to third parties.
