Bailey, 2017-06-27

Twenty first century Christians live in diaspora merely one voice among many without enjoying their once privileged place in society This is particularly the case for those who struggle to be a church that mirrors the capaciousness of God's grace We are assaulted by the venting of pent up furies which are stoked by profound anxieties over the loss of a cherished worldview and fear about an unacceptable but unstoppable future Frequently we struggle to speak an authentic word of God amidst the cross talk of many voices This book a canonical study of Hosea through Malachi called collectively The Book of the Twelve describes a biblical model of faithful speaking under similar circumstances It guides reaction to this loss toward intense engagement with Scripture and theology in order to sense again the meaning of speaking what is at the heart of faith God's unalterable commitment to continuing faithfulness with us Christian ethics and political economy Morten Bøsterud, Jan C.M. Venter, 2020-12-31

The value free and relativistic human and scientific discourses have led to an era of ideology From fascism at the dawn of the century through liberalism and the associated phenomenon of unfettered statism to the current disillusionment of postmodernism and relativism with endeavours towards new mercantilism All have maintained poverty inequality and created scepticism amongst both lay persons and academics Above all else a renewed yearning for moral and ethical direction in political and economic conduct has been created This book provides a Christian ethical reflection on political economic conduct in South Africa as an alternative to current modernistic ideas This book aims to produce new Christian ethical insight into the value of new liberal perspectives on the enhancement of the South African political economy New Christian ethical insight will be gained through new perspectives on the South African political economy Stem and Reproductive Cells in Poultry Andrea Svoradová, Peter Chrenek, Lenka Kuželová, 2025-04-30

Protecting biodiversity is a major challenge today and local animal breeds are a key part of it These unique breeds contribute to each region's natural heritage and ecological diversity Cryopreservation a process where we store stem cells and sperm in gene banks helps safeguard the genetic material of these animals for future generations This book focuses on the cryopreservation of avian bird stem cells and sperm detailing the methods used to isolate cultivate and study these cells It also explores their applications in medicine veterinary science and biotechnology showing how these preserved genetic resources can benefit both research and conservation efforts By securing the genetic diversity of avian species this work supports broader efforts to protect biodiversity and maintain the richness of animal life on our planet Handbook of Research on Creating Spaces for African Epistemologies in the Inclusive Education Discourse Maguvhe, Mbulaheni Obert, Masuku, Mfundo Mandla, 2021-12-31

Students with disabilities who are not able to perform to the best of their abilities often find themselves learning in inaccessible environments and subjected to increased stress levels due to the haphazard provisioning of education characterized by physical communicative and unsuitable teaching and learning approaches Very often this is a result of various shortcomings including unfair assessment practices Misconceptions and a lack of knowledge with regard to the implementation of inclusive education detract from the successful admission of students with disabilities and their retention and active participation The Handbook of Research on Creating Spaces for African Epistemologies in the Inclusive Education Discourse explores the concept of inclusive education in an African context It advocates for the monitoring and evaluation of inclusive education and proposes interventions where reasonable accommodation or lack of accessibility is a reason for students with disabilities to not benefit from this system Covering topics such as barriers to learning rural schools and student support this major reference work is an essential resource for administrators advocates for students with disabilities policymakers researchers pre service teachers educators academicians and students
