Potuguese Activities In Mutapa State:

The Zimbabwe Culture Innocent Pikirayi, Joseph O. Vogel, 2002-07-15 Offering a unique and original perspective on the rise and fall of indigenous states of southern Zambezia The Zimbabwe Culture analyzes the long contentious history of the remains of the remarkable cyclopean masonry ranging from mighty capitals of traditional kings to humble farmsteads Forming a cornerstone of the geographical lore of Africa in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries debate on the origins development and collapse of the Zimbabwe culture has never ceased and with increasing archaeological research over the twentieth century has become more complex Thoroughly examining the growth and decline of pre colonial states on the entire Zimbabwean Plateau and southern Zambezia Dr Pikirayi has contributed tremendously towards the archaeological understanding of this extraordinary culture The Zimbabwe Culture is essential reading for all students and avocationalists of African archaeology history and culture The Indian Ocean Michael N. Pearson, 2003-09-02 In this stimulating and authoritative overview Michael Pearson reverses the traditional angle of maritime history and looks from the sea to its shores its impact on the land through trade naval power travel and scientific exploration This vast ocean both connecting and separating nations has shaped many countries cultures and ideologies through the movement of goods people ideas and religions across the sea The Indian Ocean moves from a discussion of physical elements its shape winds currents and boundaries to a history from pre Islamic times to the modern period of European dominance Going far beyond pure maritime history this compelling survey is an invaluable addition to political cultural and economic world history Crafting Identity in Zimbabwe and Mozambique Elizabeth MacGonagle, 2007 Crosses conventional theoretical temporal and geographical boundaries to show how the Ndau of southeast Africa actively shaped their own identity over a four hundred year period

Port Cities and Intruders Michael N. Pearson, 2002-10-14 Selected by Choice Magazine as an Outstanding Academic Title In Port Cities and Intruders historian Michael Pearson explores the role of port cities and their orientation relations between the coast and the interior the place of the coast in the world economy and the impact of the Portuguese in the early modern period The Oxford Handbook of African Archaeology Peter Mitchell, Paul Lane, 2013-07-04 This Handbook provides a comprehensive synthesis of African archaeology covering the entirety of the continent s past from the beginnings of human evolution to the archaeological legacy of European colonialism It includes a mixture of key methodological and theoretical issues and debates and situates the subject s contemporary practice The Portuguese, Indian Ocean, and European Bridgeheads, 1500-1800 Pius Malekandathil, T. Jamal Mohammed, 2001 Contributed articles The Dominican Friars in Southern Africa Philippe Denis, 2016-05-18 The purpose of this book is to gather in a single narrative the rather disparate stories of Dominican friars in Southern Africa over the past four centuries Dominicans from Portugal and Portuguese India were present in South East Africa from 1577 to 1835 Patrick Raymond Griffith an Irish Dominican became the first resident bishop in South Africa in 1837 A Dominican mission was established in 1917 with the arrival of a group of English friars A second group arrived from the Netherlands in 1932 The aim is to provide a social history of the Dominicans in Southern Africa that is a history that deals specifically with the social and cultural factors of historical development The Dominicans ministered in a political social and cultural context which impacted on their apostolic activities and in turn was affected by them The book's terminus ad quem is 1990 when the National Party opened a process of political negotiation thus ending more than forty years of apartheid rule

Cities in the World: 1500-2000: v. 3 Adrian Green, 2018-12-13 Papers presented at the Cities in the World conference held at Southampton University and organised through the Society for Post Medieval Archaeology challenged the commonly held perception that cities are about the present and the future not about the past All cities have an innate sense of the past and this volume encompassing as it does A History of Zimbabwe Alois S. Mlambo, 2014-04-07 The first single volume history of Zimbabwe with detailed coverage from pre colonial times to the present this book examines Zimbabwe's pre colonial colonial and postcolonial social economic and political history and relates historical factors and trends to recent developments in the country Zimbabwe is a country with a rich history dating from the early San hunter gatherer societies The arrival of British imperial rule in 1890 impacted the country tremendously as the European rulers exploited Zimbabwe's resources giving rise to a movement of African nationalism and demands for independence This culminated in the armed conflict of the 1960s and 1970s and independence in 1980 The 1990s were marked by economic decline and the rise of opposition politics In 1999 Mugabe embarked on a violent land reform program that plunged the nation's economy into a downward spiral with political violence and human rights violations making Zimbabwe an international pariah state This book will be useful to those studying Zimbabwean history and those unfamiliar with the country's past

Portuguese Oceanic Expansion, 1400-1800 Francisco Bethencourt, Diogo Ramada Curto, 2007-04-30 A unique overview of Portuguese oceanic expansion between 1400 and 1800 the essays in this volume treat a wide range of subjects economy and society politics and institutions cultural configurations and comparative dimensions and radically update data and interpretations on the economic and financial trends of the Portuguese Empire Interregional networks are analysed in a substantial way Patterns of settlement political configurations ecclesiastical structures and local powers are put in global context Language and literature the arts and science and technology are revisited with refreshing and innovative approaches The interaction between Portuguese and local people is studied in different contexts while the entire imperial and colonial culture of the Portuguese world is looked at synthetically for the first time In short this book provides a broad understanding of the Portuguese Empire in its first four centuries as a factor in world history and as a major component of European expansion

The World of the Indian Ocean, 1500-1800 M.N. Pearson, 2024-10-28 The articles in The World of the Indian Ocean 1500 1800 describe the activities of people living on the coasts of the Indian Ocean generously defined during the early modern period Most are based at least in part on Portuguese materials A broad theme linking them all is the claim that in most areas of society and economy early modern Europeans and Asians had much in common with the newly arrived Europeans having no particular advantage over their Asian interlocutors The first five studies discuss aspects of trade and commerce while the next group deal with social and religious themes including conversions and a much quoted early attempt to investigate littoral society The third section presents four discussions of aspects of the early contact between Indian and European medical systems

Malawi Zoë Groves, Jessica Johnson, 2025-06-27 This book explores Malawi's recent history in light of longer term historical developments contributing important new insights to debates about migration citizenship chieftaincy language cultural practice anti colonialism and nationalism The book is organised around five key themes Rethinking Kamuzu Banda's Malawi Rural Development and Agricultural Production Power and Politics from pre to post colony Malawi and the Southern African Region and Culture and Cultural Production The focus on a single country facilitates consideration of local particularities as well as identification of similarities in the trajectories and challenges shared with other countries in Africa This book provides a nuanced understanding of Hastings Kamuzu Banda Malawi's first Prime Minister and President 1964-94 and the legacy of his rule Chapters analyse decolonisation in a political and a cultural sense and show how the beginning and end of colonial rule were gradual processes rather than sharp ruptures Individual chapters expand our knowledge of the history of public health development rural livelihoods food production and agricultural policy as well as prompting new debate on migration citizenship chieftaincy language cultural practice anti colonialism and nationalism This book will be of particular interest to scholars of Malawi and the wider Southern African region Nine of the chapters were originally published in a special issue of the Journal of Southern African Studies volume 46 issue 2 2020 This volume contains a revised Introduction five additional chapters all previously published in JSAS and a new Afterword

A Mixed Pot Elizabeth MacGonagle, 2002

Paul's Ethics of Reconciliation in Dialogue with Ndebele and Shona Ethnic Cohesion Gushe, Ishanesu Sextus, 2022-09-21 The tension between the Ndebele and Shona people dates back to the pre colonial era and this has been one of the major threats to Zimbabwe's peace. The book proposes Paul's ethics of reconciliation in the Corinthian correspondence as inspiration for social cohesion between the Ndebele and Shona tribes. The volume deploys Pauline key symbols: Christ the Cross of Christ, Ambassador New Creation and Baptism as epistemological lenses in promoting identity tags that go beyond ethnicity. For these symbols to be effective, the author proposes setting up of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC), refraining from using ethnic offensive language, introduction of Ndebele and Shona languages in schools, substituting ethnic provincial names with neutral ones, substituting ethnic registration system of people with a neutral one, and the devolution of power. The Archaeology of Africa Bassey Andah, Alex Okpoko, Thurstan Shaw, Paul Sinclair, 2014-05-22. Africa has a vibrant past. It emerges from this book as the proud possessor of a vast and highly complicated interweaving of peoples and cultures practising an enormous diversity of economic and social strategies in an extraordinary range of environmental situations. At long last, the archaeology of Africa has revealed enough of Africa's unwritten past to confound preconceptions about this continent and to upset the picture inferred from historic written records. Without an understanding of its past complexities, it is impossible to grasp Africa's present, let alone its future.

Great Zimbabwe Shadreck Chirikure, 2020-11-29. Conditioned by local ways of knowing and doing, Great Zimbabwe develops a new interpretation of the famous World Heritage site of Great Zimbabwe. It combines archaeological knowledge, including recent material from the author's excavations, with native concepts and philosophies. Working from a large data set, it has made it possible for the first time to develop an archaeology of Great Zimbabwe that is informed by finds and observations from the entire site and wider landscape. In so doing, the book strongly contributes towards decolonising African and world archaeology. Written in an accessible manner, the book is aimed at undergraduate students, graduate students, and practicing archaeologists both in Africa and across the globe. The book will also make contributions to the broader field, such as African Studies, African History, and World Archaeology, through its emphasis on developing synergies between local ways of knowing and the archaeology. Alvord Mabena Pathisa Nyathi, 2000.
