Oeuvres de Massillon Jean-Baptiste Massillon, 1835 The Critique of Work in Modern French Thought Alastair Hemmens, 2019-04-26 What is work Why do we do it Since time immemorial the answer to these questions from both the left and the right has been that work is both a natural necessity and barring exploitation a social good One might criticise its management its compensation and who benefits from it the most but never work itself never work as such In this book Alastair Hemmens seeks to challenge these received ideas Drawing on the new critique of value school of Marxian critical theory Hemmens demonstrates that capitalism and its final crisis cannot be properly understood except in terms of the historically specific and socially destructive character of labour It is from this radical perspective that Hemmens turns to an innovative critical analysis of the rich history of radical French thinkers who over the past two centuries have challenged the labour form head on from the utopian socialist Charles Fourier who called for the abolition of the separation between work and play and Marx's wayward son in law Paul Lafargue who demanded The Right to Laziness 1880 to the father of Surrealism Andr Breton who inaugurated a war on work and of course the French Situationist Guy Debord author of the famous graffiti never work Ultimately Hemmens considers normative changes in attitudes to work since the 1960s and the future of anti capitalist social movements today This book will be a crucial point of reference for contemporary debates about labour and the anti work tradition in France Essai sur la langue Congolaise P.
