Former les enseignants

Luc Ria, 2019-09-12 Toutes les enquêtes internationales accordent sur l'importance de la formation des enseignants dans la réussite de l'école Chacun convient que les évolutions sociétales et technologiques ne permettent plus aujourd'hui d'enseigner sans refléter aux conditions de transmission des savoirs Les décideurs eux-mêmes affirment que la formation professionnelle est la meilleure de toutes les formes celle sans laquelle aucun véritable changement en profondeur n'est possible Pourtant malgré de belles avancées cette formation reste encore trop pyramidale et descendante parfois infantilisante souvent exclusivement prescriptive toujours insuffisamment articulée aux préoccupations concrètes des acteurs Riche de plusieurs années de recherches et de collaborations avec de très nombreuses équipes Luc Ria nous propose de repenser la formation des enseignants dans la perspective d'un développement professionnel continu partant des gestes ordinaires et des comportements spontanés les analyser et les comprendre les confronter à d'autres dans des communautés d'apprentissage professionnel Utiliser pour cela l'analyse des situations de classe la coopération didactique l'explicitation de l'expérience grâce à la vidéo avec des pairs qui se font alors amis critiques Voilà une perspective qui est ici très largement documentée et illustrée de nombreuses études de cas On découvrira par exemple quel point les rituels d'entrée dans la classe sont déterminants faut-il obtenir l'ordre pour mettre les élèves au travail ou mettre les élèves au travail pour obtenir l'ordre Question qui n'a rien de simpliste et face à laquelle l'expertise des chercheurs des collèges mais aussi des élèves peut beaucoup nous apprendre Et nous permettre d'avancer sur ce point comme sur bien d'autres vers un niveau d'enseignant qui conjugue ambition politique théique

professionnelle et compétences techniques
