Seagull A Southern Novel:

The African Novel of Ideas Jeanne-Marie Jackson, 2021-01-12 An ambitious look at the African novel and its connections to African philosophy in the twentieth and twenty first centuries The African Novel of Ideas focuses on the role of the philosophical novel and the place of philosophy more broadly in the intellectual life of the African continent from the early twentieth century to today Examining works from the Gold Coast South Africa Uganda and Zimbabwe and tracing how such writers as J E Casely Hayford Imraan Coovadia Tendai Huchu Jennifer Nansubuga Makumbi and Stanlake Samkange reconcile deep contemplation with their social situations Jeanne Marie Jackson offers a new way of reading and understanding African literature Jackson begins with Fante anticolonial worldliness in prenationalist Ghana moves through efforts to systematize Shona philosophy in 1970s Zimbabwe looks at the Ugandan novel Kintu as a treatise on pluralistic rationality and arrives at the treatment of philosophical suicide by current southern African writers As Jackson charts philosophy's evolution from a dominant to marginal presence in African literary discourse across the past hundred years she assesses the push and pull of subjective experience and abstract thought The first major transnational exploration of African literature in conversation with philosophy The African Novel of Ideas redefines the place of the African experience within literary history

Man with a Seagull on His Head Harriet Paige, 2018-10-09 Linked by an unlikely accident four strangers characters grapple with loneliness memory and the mysteries of art Ray Eccles is a man who dislikes unpredictability and the messiness of social interaction to such extent that his co workers habit of gathering around the Xerox machine it's his job to run makes even that regular task unbearable When a misunderstanding leads to unexpected time off from work Ray takes a day trip to nearby East Beach on what happens to be his fortieth birthday As he gazes at the sea a distant woman turns to face him and a seagull falls from the sky knocking him unconscious He awakens compelled to paint her image using whatever materials come to hand jam ketchup even the walls of his home Enter George and Grace Zoob collectors of Outsider Art whose endorsement rockets Ray to fame in the art world and beyond Soon even small town newspapers are covering his work which is how Jennifer the woman on the beach discovers she's the sole subject of the paintings that have set the world on fire leading her to wonder if a man she's never met is the only person who has ever really seen her Lyrical elegant and quietly profound Harriet Paige's Man With a Seagull on His Head captures the small shared moments where our lives overlap making artistry out of the everyday

The Companion to Southern Literature Joseph M. Flora, Lucinda Hardwick MacKethan, 2001-11-01 Selected as an Outstanding Academic Title by Choice Selected as an Outstanding Reference Source by the Reference and User Services Association of the American Library Association There are many anthologies of southern literature but this is the first companion Neither a survey of masterpieces nor a biographical sourcebook The Companion to Southern Literature treats every conceivable topic found in southern writing from the pre Columbian era to the present referencing specific works of all periods and genres Top scholars in their fields offer original definitions and examples of the Understanding Women's Experiences of Displacement Suranjana Choudhury, Nabanita Sengupta, 2021-11-29 The South Asian region has been especially prone to mass displacement and relocations owing to its varied geographical settings as well as socio political factors This book examines the women's perspective on issues related to displacement loss conflict and rehabilitation It maps the diverse engagements with women's experiences of displacement in the South Asian region through a nuanced examination of unexplored literary narratives life writing and memoirs cultural discourses and social practices The book explores themes like sexuality and the female body women and the national identity violence against women in Indian Partition narratives and stories of exile in real life and fairy tales It also offers an understanding of the ruptures created by dislocation and exile in memory identity and culture by analyzing the spaces occupied by displaced women and their lived experiences The volume looks at the multiplicity of reasons behind women's displacement and offers a wider perspective on the intersections between gender migration and marginalization. This book will be useful for scholars and researchers of cultural studies, literature, gender studies, conflict studies, development studies, South Asian studies, refugee studies, diaspora studies, and sociology. Merriam-Webster's

Encyclopedia of Literature Merriam-Webster, Inc., 1995. Describes authors' works and literary terms from all eras and all parts of the world. South Asian Writers, Latin American Literature, and the Rise of Global English Roanne

Kantor, 2022-02-24. South Asian writers reference Latin American literature to identify against the Anglophone globe even as they circulate within it. The World Is Our Home Jeffrey J. Folks, Nancy Summers Folks, 2014-07-15. Since the early 1970s southern fiction has been increasingly attentive to social issues including the continuing struggles for racial justice and gender equality, the loss of a sense of social community, and the decline of a coherent regional identity. The essays in The World Is Our Home focus on writers who have explicitly addressed social and cultural issues in their fiction and drama, including Dorothy Allison, Horton Foote, Ernest J. Gaines, Jill McCorkle, Walker Percy, Lee Smith, William Styron, Alice Walker, and many others. The contributors provide valuable insights into the transformation of southern culture over the past thirty years and probe the social and cultural divisions that persist. The collection makes an important case for the centrality of social critique in contemporary southern fiction. Contemporary Diasporic South Asian Women's Fiction Ruvani

Ranasinha, 2016-05-28. This book is the first comparative analysis of a new generation of diasporic Anglophone South Asian women novelists, including Kiran Desai, Tahmima Anam, Monica Ali, Kamila Shamsie, and Jhumpa Lahiri, from a feminist perspective. It charts the significant changes these writers have produced in postcolonial and contemporary women's fiction since the late 1990s. Paying careful attention to the authors' distinct subcontinental backgrounds of Pakistan, Bangladesh, and Sri Lanka, as well as India, this study destabilises the central place given to fiction focused on India. It broadens the customary focus on diasporic writers' metropolitan contexts, illuminates how these transnational female-authored literary texts challenge national assumptions, and considers the ways in which this new configuration of transnational feminist writers produces a postcolonial feminist discourse which differs from Anglo-American feminism. Teaching Anglophone South Asian

Women Writers Deepika Bahri, Filippo Menozzi, 2021-06-15. Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching South Asian women's writing in English, including consideration of colonization and imperialism, Partition, war, migration, and diaspora, tradition and modernity, global capitalism, climate change, gender, and sexuality, and intersectionality. Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses in postcolonial literature, world literature, and women's studies. South Asian

Novelists in English Jaina C. Sanga, 2003-03-30. With the publication of Salman Rushdie's Booker Prize-winning novel Midnight's Children in 1981, followed by the unprecedented popularity of his subsequent works, the cinematic adaptation of Michael Ondaatje's The English Patient, and many other best sellers written by South Asian novelists writing in English, have gained a tremendous following. This reference is a guide to their lives and writings. The volume focuses on novelists born in South Asia who have written and continue to write about issues concerning that region Some of the novelists have published widely while others are only beginning their literary careers The volume includes alphabetically arranged entries on more than 50 South Asian novelists Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes a summary of the novelist's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Since many of the contributors are personally acquainted with the novelists they are able to offer significant insights The volume closes with a selected bibliography of studies of the South Asian novel in English along with a list of anthologies and periodicals

Attacked from Beneath by Carp and from Above by Seagulls, 2015-07-08 For the past twelve years out of a tiny but well lit corner of the McSweeney's offices in San Francisco The Believer has published essays and interviews that are great for all seasons But this collection is not interested in 75 percent of those seasons Included in this eminently beach tote able digital edition are interviews essays poetry and reviews that cover all the staples of summer beach houses amusement parks surfing road trips honeymoons failed Gen X sodas and Taylor Swift Judy Blume and Lena Dunham discuss Fifty Shades of Grey Sarah Silverman makes her grandma cry Peter Schjeldahl shares secrets from his annual fireworks display Simon Rich wins an epic basketball game and a lake in Lago Vista Texas named Fun reveals itself to be anything but Perfect for long lazy days this issue represents the best of The Believer's buoyant and slightly sunburned side Creating Books for the Young in the New South Africa Barbara A. Lehman, Jay Heale, Anne Hill, 2014-10-01 This collection of essays analyzes the work of 29 authors and illustrators South African children's and youth literature has a long history The country is the most prolific publisher of children's books on the continent producing perhaps the highest quality literature in Africa Its traditions resonate within the larger world of children's literature but are solidly grounded in African myth and archetypes The African diaspora in the U S and elsewhere have stories rooted in these oral traditions Much has changed in South African literature for children since the 1994 transformation of the country A field once dominated by all white and mostly female writers and illustrators has diversified adding many new voices The Short Story after Apartheid Graham K. Riach, 2023-10-15 Honourable Mention in the 2023 British Association for Contemporary Literary Studies Monograph Prize The Short Story after Apartheid offers the first major study of the anglophone short story in South Africa since apartheid's end By focusing on the short story this book complicates models of South African literature dominated by the novel and contributes to a much needed generic and formalist turn in postcolonial studies Literary texts are sites of productive struggle between formal and extra formal concerns and these brief fragmentary elliptical formally innovative stories offer perspectives that reframe or revise important concerns of post apartheid literature the aesthetics of engaged writing the politics of the past class and race the legacies of violence and the struggle over the land Through an analysis of key texts from the period by Nadine Gordimer Ivan Vladislavi Zo Wicomb Phaswane Mpe and Henrietta Rose Innes this book assesses the place of the short story in post apartheid writing and develops a fuller model of how artworks allow and disallow forms of social thought Sol Plaatje's Mhudi

Sabata-mpho Mokae, Brian Willan, 2021 Sol Plaatje's Mhudi is the first full length novel in English to have been written by a black South African and is widely regarded as one of South Africa's most important literary works. Set in the 1830s it tells the tale of Mhudi and Ra Thaga a romantic story set against a violent backdrop of war between Barolong and Matebele complicated by the intrusions of Boer trekkers with whom the Barolong form an alliance. It is notable among other things for the way Plaatje uses the past to explore the roots of the oppression and injustice suffered by his people a century later when the book was written. Imagining Southern Spaces Deniz Bozkurt-Pekar, 2021-02-22 Identifying the antebellum era in the United States as a transitional setting Imagining Southern Spaces investigates spatialization processes about the South during a time when intensifying debates over the abolition of slavery led to a heightened period of re-spatialization in the region. Taking the question of abolition as a major factor that shaped how different actors responded to these processes this book studies spatial imaginations in a selection of abolitionist and proslavery literature of the era. Through this diversity of imaginations the book points to a multitude of Souths in various economic political and cultural entanglements in the American Hemisphere and the Circumatlantic. Thus it challenges monolithic and provincial representations of the South as a provincial region distinct from the rest of the country

Crossing Boundaries with Children's Books Doris Gebel, United States Board on Books for Young People, 2006-05-25 This annotated bibliography organized geographically by world region and country describing nearly 700 books representing 73 countries is a valuable resource for librarians teachers and anyone else seeking to promote international understanding through children's literature. It is the third volume sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People. The first Carl M. Tomlinson's Children's Books from Other Countries 1998 is a compendium of international children's literature with annotations of both in and out of print books published between 1950 and 1996. Susan Stan's The World Through Children's Books 2002 was the second and it included books published between the years 1997 and 2000. Crossing Boundaries includes international children's books published between 2000 and 2004 as well as selected American books set in countries other than the United States. Editor Doris Gebel has compiled an important tool for providing stories that will help children understand our differences while simultaneously demonstrating our common humanity

Mediating Violence from Africa George S. MacLeod, 2023-10 Mediating Violence from Africa explores how African and non-African Francophone authors filmmakers editors and scholars have packaged interpreted and filmed the violent histories of post-Cold War Francophone Africa. This violence much of which unfolded in front of Western television cameras included the use of child soldiers facilitated by the Soviet Union's castoff Kalashnikov rifles the rise of Islamist terrorism in West Africa and the horrific genocide against the Tutsi in Rwanda. Through close readings of fictionalized child soldier narratives cinematic representations of Islamist militants genocide survivor testimony and Western scholarship George S. MacLeod analyzes the ways Francophone African authors and filmmakers as well as their editors and scholarly critics negotiate the aesthetic political cultural and ethical implications of making these traumatic stories visible MacLeod argues for the need to periodize these productions within a post Cold War framework to emphasize how shifts in post 1989 political discourse are echoed contested or subverted by contemporary Francophone authors filmmakers and Western scholars The questions raised in Mediating Violence from Africa are of vital importance today How the world engages with and responds to stories of recent violence and loss from Africa has profound implications for the affected communities and individuals More broadly in an era in which stories and images of violence from terror attacks to school shootings to police brutality are disseminated almost instantly and with minimal context these theoretical questions have implications for debates surrounding the ethics of representing trauma the politicization of memory and Africa's place in a global as opposed to a postcolonial or Euro African economic and political landscape

Popular Culture in South Asian Context Akshaya Kumar, Raj Thakur, 2025-11-10 The volume examines popular sensibilities via textual visual performative spatial digital frames of inquiry and critical social political issues in South Asia It highlights the interface between cultural studies and its popular political standpoints and interrogates the kaleidoscope of popular imaginary as well as its conceptual problematics through distinct case studies from the region It leads learners towards the unfounded territories of popular culture studies in South Asia With chapters by major scholars in the field the book uses theoretically comprehensive and empirically varied case studies to re evaluate the central questions of epistemology methodology and approaches to popular culture studies from non Western cultures perspectives Lucid accessible and nuanced the chapters in the volume will be an invaluable reference source for scholars researchers and students in the humanities liberal arts cultural studies and South Asian studies

Global South Asia on Screen John Hutnyk, 2018-06-14 With importance for geopolitical cultural economy anthropology and media studies John Hutnyk brings South Asian circuits of scholarship to attention where alongside critical Marxist and poststructuralist authors a new take on film and television is on offer The book presents Raj era costume dramas as a commentary on contemporary anti Muslim racism a new political compact in film and television studies and the President watching a snuff film from Pakistan Hanif Kureishi's postcolonial fuck Sandwich sits alongside Salman Rushdie's Satanic Verses updated for the war on terror with low brow high brow versions of Asia that carry us up the Himalayas with magic carpet TV nostalgia Maoists rage below and books go up in flames while News network phone ins end with executions on the Hanging Channel and arms trade and immigration paranoia thrives Multiplying filmi versions of Mela are measured against a transnational realignment towards Global South Asia in a contested and testing political future Each chapter offers a slice of historical study and assessment of media theory appropriate for viewers of Global South Asia seeking to understand why lurid exoticism and paralysing terror go hand in hand The answers are in the images always open to interpretation but Global South Asia on Screen examines the ways film and TV trade on stereotype and fear nationalism and desire politics and context and with this the book calls for wider reading than media theory has hitherto entertained
