Mitchell Miller,Richard A. Wright,2013-12-17 This three volume work offers a comprehensive review of the pivotal concepts measures theories and practices that comprise criminology and criminal justice No longer just a subtopic of sociology criminology has become an independent academic field of study that incorporates scholarship from numerous disciplines including psychology political science behavioral science law economics public health family studies social work and many others The three volume Encyclopedia of Criminology presents the latest research as well as the traditional topics which reflect the field s multidisciplinary nature in a single authoritative reference work More than 525 alphabetically arranged entries by the leading authorities in the discipline comprise this definitive international resource The pivotal concepts measures theories and practices of the field are addressed with an emphasis on comparative criminology and criminal justice While the primary focus of the work is on American criminology and contemporary criminal justice in the United States extensive global coverage of other nations justice systems is included and the increasing international nature of crime is explored thoroughly Providing the most up to date scholarship in addition to the traditional theories on criminology the Encyclopedia of Criminology is the essential one stop reference for students and scholars alike to explore the broad expanse of this multidisciplinary field Combining Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Treatment with Diversion for Juveniles in the Justice System ,2007 Changes in Society, Crime and Criminal Justice in Europe C. J. C. F. Fijnaut,Johan Goethals,1995 In 1994 the School of Criminology a part of the Department of Criminal Law Criminal Procedure and Criminology in the Faculty of Law of the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven celebrated the 25th anniversary of its study programme To give added lustre to this landmark in its history the Institute accepted the invitation from the International Society of Criminology to organise the 49th International Course of Criminology The title of the course was Changes in Society Crime and Criminal Justice in Europe A challenge for criminological education and research This course explored two themes both of which are likely to be the focus of debate in criminal policy in the near future crime and insecurity in the city and international organised and corporate crime The presentation and discussion of both themes followed two main approaches Lectures and seminars focused on the analysis of the nature the quantity and the development of the phenomena and meetings were focused on the policy needed to gain control of these phenomena Moreover attention was paid to technical and ethical problems which show up at the moment that empirical research is carried out This publication brings together the main part of the introductory lectures Part one relates to the theme of crime and insecurity in the city the second part contains the lectures on international organised and corporate crime Together both parts present a good picture of what was explained and commented on during the Course especially in relation to important European developments concerning crime criminal justice and criminal policy This book will become an important source of inspiration for both criminological education and research

Culture, Politics and Race in the Making of Interpersonal Psychoanalysis Roger Frie, Pascal Sauvayre, 2022-05-23 Winner of the 2023 American Board Academy of Psychoanalysis Book Prize Culture Politics and Race in the Making of Interpersonal Psychoanalysis traces the emergence of Interpersonal Psychoanalysis and demonstrates how the radical cross disciplinary dialogues that form its foundation are relevant to present day social and cultural challenges Psychoanalysts today are grappling with how to address a host of societal and political crises In the 1930s a similar set of crises led a group of progressive practitioners and scholars to engage in a radical cross disciplinary dialogue that became the foundation for Interpersonal Psychoanalysis Pioneering psychoanalysts created a form of thought and practice that viewed human suffering through the wider lens of society and culture and provided a means to address the pervasive issues of racism sexuality and politics in human experience With contributions from leading psychoanalysts and scholars and by making use of original sources this book evidences the significance of this approach to understanding marginalisation today Written in an open and accessible fashion Culture Politics and Race in the Making of Interpersonal Psychoanalysis demonstrates the importance of the early interpersonal cultural school for the present moment The book will appeal to a broad audience in psychoanalysis and psychotherapy the history of medicine and social and cultural theory
