Praxis Parts One And Two

Andrew deWaard, R. Colin Tait

Praxis Parts One And Two:

Critique, Action, and Liberation James L. Marsh, 1995-01-01 Critique Action and Liberation is an original work in critical social theory that develops an approach to and method for social and political science Drawing on the work of Habermas Marcuse Adorno Offe Marx and David Harvey Marsh develops an ethics and a social phenomenology of the self as communicative subject He then advances an interpretation and critique of modernity late capitalism and state socialism

The Spirit of Atonement Steven M. Studebaker, 2021-01-14 Steven M Studebaker proposes a Pentecostal approach to a major Christian doctrine the atonement The book moves Pentecostal theology of the atonement from a primarily Christocentric and crucicentric register to one that articulates the pneumatological and holistic nature of Pentecostal praxis Studebaker examines the irony of Classical Pentecostalism relying on the Christocentrism of Protestantism evangelical atonement theology to articulate its experience of the Holy Spirit as well as the Pneumatological nature of Pentecostal praxis He then develops a Pentecostal theology of atonement based on the biblical narrative of the Spirit of Pentecost and returns to re imagine an expanded vision of Pentecostal praxis based on the theological formation of the biblical narrative The result is a Pentecostal atonement theology that shows the integrated nature of pneumatology creation and Christology in the biblical narrative of redemption It gives theological expression to not only the pneumatological nature of Pentecostal praxis but also the fundamental role of the Holy Spirit in the biblical narrative of redemption The book challenges popular western atonement theologies to re think their Christocentrism and crucicentrism as well as their atomistic tendency to separate soteriology into objective Christological and subjective pneumatological categories

The City Joseph Grange, 1999-01-01 An environmental philosophy of the contemporary city this book develops a theory of good urban growth involving both the physical and cultural dimensions of city life

Gustavo Gutiérrez and the Liberative Sight of Christ Luke Foster, 2024-06-28 How can we speak of God as Father in a world that is inhumane While many engagements with Gutiérrez's theology centre on such themes as the option for the poor the role of praxis or the Kingdom of God in Gustavo Gutiérrez and the Liberative Sight of Christ Luke Foster explores the underlying theological convictions and commitments within which these concepts cohere By developing an analysis that is attentive to the unity and coherence of Gutiérrez's thought Foster resources a critique that is distinctive not only in its pertinence but also in the possibilities that it opens for the development of his project in the future Innovatively offering a systemic account of Gutiérrez's theology this book offers both an indispensable overview for those who are engaging with Gutiérrez for the first time and a distinctive analysis for those who are seeking to deepen their understanding of his work

The Cinema of Steven Soderbergh Andrew deWaard, R. Colin Tait, 2013-04-30 La 4e de couv indique The industry's only director cinematographer screenwriter producer actor editor Steven Soderbergh is contemporary Hollywood's most innovative and prolific filmmaker A Palme d'Or and Academy Award winner he has directed nearly thirty films including political provocations digital experiments esoteric documentaries and global blockbusters as well as atypical genre films This volume considers its slippery subject from a variety of perspectives analysing Soderbergh as an expressive auteur of art cinema as well as genre fare a politically motivated guerrilla filmmaker and Hollywood insider Preoccupied with the detective's role to investigate truth as well as the criminal's alternative value system his films tackle social justice in a corporate world Soderbergh's career demonstrates the richness of contemporary American cinema this volume gives his complex oeuvre the in depth critical analysis it deserves Finding Lost Words G. Geoffrey Harper, Kit Barker, 2017-03-31 The brokenness of this world inevitably invades our lives But how do you maintain faith when overwhelmed by grief When prayer goes unanswered When all you have are questions not answers What do you say to God when you know he is in control but the suffering continues unabated Is there any alternative to remaining speechless in the midst of pain and heartbreak This book is about finding words to use when life is hard These words are not new They are modes of expression that the church has drawn on in times of grief throughout most of its history Yet the church in the West has largely abandoned these words the psalms of lament The result is that believers often struggle to know what to do or say when faced with distress anxiety and loss Whether you are in Christian leadership training for ministry or simply struggling to reconcile experience with biblical convictions Finding Lost Words will help you consider how these ancient words can become your own

Handbook of Research on Assessment Technologies, Methods, and Applications in Higher Education Schreiner, Christopher S., 2009-05-31 This research publication accommodates in depth studies that elucidate both the prospects and problems of learning assessment in higher education Provided by publisher Marx and Critical Theory Emmanuel Renault, 2018-08-13 Marx and Critical Theory examines Marx's main philosophical political and social theoretical ideas Its purpose is twofold making sense of the concepts and theses of Marx and showing that they remain relevant for contemporary critical theory Part One focuses on Marx's conception of philosophy Part Two analyses the Marxian primacy of the practical Part Three is devoted to Capital and the critique of political economy This book will be useful for those who want to deepen their understanding of Marx's main ideas as well as for those who want to clarify what is at stake in contemporary debates about the ways in which contemporary critical theory could or should refer to Marx

Proceedings of the Indiana Pharmaceutical Association Indiana Pharmaceutical Association, 1882 Praxis and Democratic Socialism David A. Crocker, 1983 See My Body, See Me Pamela F. Engelbert, 2024-09-26 MeToo ChurchToo pentecostalsisterstoo Since 2018 hashtags and stories of sexual violence have appeared in all sectors of life from Hollywood to the Olympics from politics to religion from universities to seminaries and among pentecostals But amid all these stories of sexual abuse and assaults one may wonder if any stories of healing from sexual violence exist If so what does healing look like particularly among pentecostals who believe in divine healing Is it a single prayer of faith or a conglomeration of healing factors In true pentecostal form See My Body See Me systematically examines the healing stories of eight pentecostal survivors and the experiences of five pentecostal licensed counselors It then combines these experiences of both males and females with Scripture theology psychology and culture to provide a pentecostal perspective on healing from sexual violence As a practical theological approach See My Body See Me also offers acts of ministry to provide healing spaces by way of three embodied praxes that are historically and theologically pentecostal listening waiting and learning See My Body See Me is an invitation to participate in Christ's healing ministry to see hear and believe survivors as God sees hears and believes them

Emerging Theologies from the Global South Mitri Raheb, Mark A. Lamport, 2023-03-29 In recent decades there has been a seismic shift in world Christianity Whereas formerly Christianity existed as a Caucasian Euro American phenomenon the majority of Christians today reside in the Southern Hemisphere or the Global South And what is true for the demographics of Christianity has followed lockstep for its theological developments The era of German theologians setting the tone for global church are gone Today some of the loudest and most creative voices in theology speak from the emerging contingencies of the Global South for example promoting Latinx Black Caribbean and Asian theologies and their influence often influences the conversation in the United States and Europe In addition just as the center of Christianity has moved geographically from north to south so with theological seminaries in the west which have declined as training centers for clergy These events coincide with new theological centers are opening in Asia Africa Oceania and Latin America The bottom line is contemporary Christianity today looks significantly different than it did a century ago and publications have been slow to acknowledge let alone describe and elaborate upon this major shift to the largest religion in the world These shifts guide our intentions in this book Such a reference book which could also be used as a textbook therefore is very much needed In fact there is nothing like the contents of this single volume book in the publishing market which allows for high quality interdisciplinary and international dialogue

The SAGE Encyclopedia of Action Research David Coghlan, Mary Brydon-Miller, 2014-08-11 Action research is a term used to describe a family of related approaches that integrate theory and action with a goal of addressing important organizational community and social issues together with those who experience them It focuses on the creation of areas for collaborative learning and the design enactment and evaluation of liberating actions through combining action and research reflection and action in an ongoing cycle of cogenerative knowledge While the roots of these methodologies go back to the 1940s there has been a dramatic increase in research output and adoption in university curricula over the past decade This is now an area of high popularity among academics and researchers from various fields especially business and organization studies education health care nursing development studies and social and community work The SAGE Encyclopedia of Action Research brings together the many strands of action research and addresses the interplay between these disciplines by presenting a state of the art overview and comprehensive breakdown of the key tenets and methods of action research as well as detailing the work of key theorists and contributors to action research

Fostering a Climate of Inclusion in the College Classroom Lavonna L. Lovern, 2018-03-12 This book examines inclusion teaching at the college and university level It establishes the importance of the Humanities disciplines and the use of qualitative analysis as a means of understanding and encouraging democratic materials and classroom organization The first section of the text provides two primers for those unfamiliar with pedagogical history and theory These primers are designed to give basic information and sources for additional study They trace pedagogical influences from foundationism neoliberalism conflict and critical theories to critical race theory Red pedagogy and decolonization theories The second half of the book focuses on strategies to assist those attempting classroom inclusion These chapters are designed to assist with practical ways in which inclusion can be advanced as well as strategies to assist junior faculty in the navigation of the politics of inclusive education

God-Relationships With and Without God J Kellenberger, 2016-01-01 Community Analysis and Practice Josefin Figueira-McDonough, 2013-05-13 Concentrating on three main themes environmental complexity community as the target of intervention and commitment to social justice Community Theory and Practice updates and expands the current boundaries of thinking about community organization This book is an important resource for social work students educators and practitioners as well as those who work in the areas of sociology urban studies community organization and development and criminology and other areas of social study and policy

A History of English Law Sir William Searle Holdsworth, 1926 Genuine Reciprocity and Group Authenticity Kevin Craig Boileau, 2000 To some Jean Paul Sartre's philosophy signaled the end of modernity Michael Foucault's theories on the generation of the self helped to usher in the post modern era Kevin Boileau's work Genuine Reciprocity and Group Authenticity argues that Sartre's insight into the positive reciprocal relationships of individuals can be understood through the Foucauldian concept of power and discourse The book explores authenticity on individual and group levels breaking new ground in the study of Sartre and Foucault It is a beneficial tool for philosophers studying modern or post modern thought

Heidegger in Question Robert Bernasconi, 2022-05-09 Robert Bernasconi explores in the context of Heidegger's thought a number of questions of far reaching concern what is the role of literary examples within philosophy Is art dead What is the relation of art to nature Is there a place for the idea of a people in art and literary theory and in philosophy Is the history of philosophy to be written as a narrative What is the status of ethics within philosophy What place does philosophy give to praxis What is the place today of the belief in the nobility of the philosophical life What is the relation of politics to thought Reflecting a dominant concern of recent Heidegger scholarship the focal point of a number of the essays is the relation of Heidegger's own politics to his thought In addition to this examination of what appears to compromise Heidegger's philosophy Bernasconi explores its relation to the further possibilities which that thought has opened in the writings of Arendt Gadamer Levinas and Derrida

Critical Pedagogies of Discomfort in Practice and Professional Education Fiona Cullen, Mike Seal, Michael Whelan, 2025-06-12 This book explores the scope for discomfiting pedagogies within practice and professional education contexts in order to consider the ethical challenges associated with exploring complex and sensitive areas of practice and everyday life Questions explored include How is discomfort handled within professional training What spaces remain for critical reflection dialogue and compassionate challenge within practice and professional education spaces What are the ethical implications of critical pedagogic practice in University based professional education and other training settings How does compassion and care intersect with developing critical pedagogical approaches on thorny and sensitive issues How do identities and investments play out in education and training spaces and to what effect What are the limits of safe space within professional education contexts Bringing together scholars practitioners and students who draw on themes of social justice in their pedagogical practice the contributors unpack the debates around how to reflect on challenge and explore critical and sensitive issues in social justice education in professional contexts Consideration is given to how decisions in relation to notions of safety and discomfort should be made and who is empowered to make these decisions
