Healing Services* James K. Wagner, 2011-07-01 Persons who design and lead worship will find this a practical and useful guide for Christ centered healing ministry that can be easily adapted in a variety of settings Included are six complete services of Holy Communion Healing and Wholeness Praise Prayer and Anointing and Prayer Confession and Laying on of Hands Services are suitable for Sunday morning worship retreat settings small group experiences hospital nursing home and home visitations and personal counseling sessions James K Wagner worked for several years at the Upper Room in Nashville Tennessee as the Director of Prayer and Healing Ministries He is the author of several books on healing and wholeness ministry The Thousand Generation Covenant: Dutch Reformed Covenant Theology and Group Identity in Colonial South Africa, 1652-1814 Gerstner, 2021-12-06 This study presents the religious factor in the development of a separatistic group identity among the forebears of the Afrikaners during the Dutch colonial period of South African history Dutch Reformed covenant theology and baptism practice rooted in the thousand generation covenant theory helped to shape this self understanding It traces the basic developments of covenant theology in the Netherlands during the period and demonstrates how these concepts were conveyed to colonial South Africa The dominant strain of covenantal thought treated the entire community as redeemed and called to be separate It was presented through a variety of means through which virtually every colonist was exposed This study offers a balanced historical approach to the role of theological concepts in the colonial roots of Afrikaner group identity It answers traditional scholarship in the field which either directly identify the concepts behind the development of apartheid with Calvinist theology or more recently deny that the Reformed faith had any role in the development of apartheid ideology until the twentieth century Greenhouses of Hope Dorie Grinenko Baker, 2010-11-12 Do you know a church where young people regularly shape the liturgy with words that speak their truth in ways that also inspire their elders Do you hear about congregations that reach out in quirky new ways to their ailing neighborhoods instead of locking doors and shipping out to a suburb Do you find churches creating hospitable space that invites the live wriggling questions and doubts of young people in unhurried unworried ways Do you see congregations where young people s gifts are not stored in the basement or bracketed into contemporary worship services but are brought forth and celebrated The authors who collaborated on this book launched a quest for such vibrant life giving greening congregations and observed the diverse practices that grow there They named these churches Greenhouses of Hope A Greenhouse of Hope is a Christian congregation freeing itself to experiment with both newly imagined and time honored ways of following the path of Jesus Its members respond to God s love through practices that genuinely embrace the gifts of youth and young adults Out of these greenhouses emerge young leaders who want to change the world In Greenhouses of Hope Dori Baker and six contributors tell the stories of these remarkable congregations helping others think about how they can create space for the dreams of young people to be grafted into God s dreams for the world A Collection of Psalms and Hymns; Designed for Public Worship, Etc ,1831 Understanding insightful view into the pastoral dimensions of Christian rituals and practices in the home and church Joo discerns how Henry understood and practised English Presbyterian worship as an example of Reformed worship in his context and suggests how contemporary churches can appropriately develop and articulate their own worship in their own contexts making the case for worship renewal

A Sense of Belonging Hilton Scott, 2022-03-08 This book takes an interdisciplinary approach to a societal challenge that both affects and is affected by the church in multi racial multi cultural and otherwise pluralistic communities In certain contexts around the world there are pertinent examples of the struggles that come with learning to live together in the midst of diversity and plurality such as the post apartheid Republic of South Africa However these more often than not racial and cultural struggles could be eased by developing worship services that are more relevant and inclusive This in turn should instil a sense of belief and a way of inclusive thinking culminating in more inclusive living The approach developed in this book stems from the aphorism lex orandi lex credendi lex con vivendi or as we pray so we believe so we live together
