Abdulwahab Bin Shmailan,2018-05-10 This is about time management and planning by using criteria that maintain the good investment of time in our lives It is also one of the most important management factors for a mans success and goal achievement Peter Drucker in 1982 said Time is the most valuable resource for a manager If he could not manage his time he would not be able to manage anything That is why time management is considered as one of the essential issues that man should care about Most studies related to time management confirmed that good governance is closely related to performance improvement and productivity enhancement Francis Bacon said Time is the scale of management as money is the scale of commodities and goods Although time is a unique commodity it is equally given to each individual regardless of job or location So time passes in a constant and limited speed But it seems that no one has enough time We also cannot create more time We have to manage using the time given to us A Concise History of the Middle East Arthur Goldschmidt Jr.,2018-03-05 An introduction to the history of this turbulent region from the beginnings of Islam to the present day this widely acclaimed text by Arthur Goldschmidt Jr is distinguished by its clear style broad scope and balanced treatment This book explores the evolution of Islamic institutions and culture the influence of the West the modernization efforts of Middle Eastern governments the struggle of various peoples for political independence the Arab Israeli conflict the reassertion of Islamic values and power the issues surrounding the Palestinian Question and the post 9 11 Middle East The eleventh edition has been fully revised to reflect the most recent events in and concerns of the region including an expanded and more nuanced discussion of the War on Terrorism and the Arab uprisings coverage of the rise of ISIS and a new chapter on the growing environmental problems of the region In addition the authors have incorporated new scholarship on the early history to provide a fuller picture of the political shifts and socioeconomic concerns of that time With updated bibliographical sketches chronology and glossary A Concise History of the Middle East remains an essential text for students of Middle East history Islamic Religious Authority in a Modern Age Shaheen Amid Whyte,2024-01-22 This book situates Australian Muslim experiences of religious authority within the global context of Islam in the modern world While drawing on examples of Muslim majority states new empirical findings indicate the growing diversity of Muslim religious actors in Australia as well as the contextual realities shaping the way religious authority is legitimised and contested in democratic and authoritarian environments In particular the study challenges homogenous articulations of Islamic religious authority in unearthing new voices epistemologies and socio political factors shaping Muslim attitudes and experiences of religious authority The book fills important gaps in the field such as intra Muslim relations female religious authority digital Islam and the relationship between traditional ulama reformists and Muslim intellectuals in the West Islamic Schooling and the Identities of Muslim Youth in Quebec Hicham Tiflati,2020-10-26 This insightful text examines the impact of Islamic schooling on Muslim youth in French speaking Canada to consider how these institutions influence the formation of students cultural national ethnic and religious identities and their sense of belonging to Quebec and Canada Through close qualitative analysis of interviews conducted with first and second generation students as well as parents teachers and leaders involved in Islamic high schools this text explores how far institutions succeed in preparing young Muslims to participate in the broader secular society in Quebec and in English speaking Canada As well as investigating the historical and contemporary development of Islamic schooling in Canada and addressing public perceptions of this educational sector the volume foregrounds the voices of those directly involved in these schools to illustrate first hand experiences and the motivations and objectives of those choosing to support or engage in these schools Overarching themes include citizenship integration and the complex interplay of Muslim Quebecois and Canadian values This book will be of great interest to graduate and postgraduate students researcher scholars and academics in the fields of religion education Islamic studies multicultural education curriculum studies and faith based teacher education Neuroethics and Cultural Diversity Michele Farisco,2023-11-28 There is a growing discussion concerning the relationship between neuroethical reflections and cultural diversity which is among the most impactful factors in shaping neuroethics both as a scientific discipline and a social enterprise The impacts of culture on science and its public perception are particularly relevant to neuroethics which aims to facilitate the creation of an interface between neuroscience and society at large Time is ripe for neuroethics to review the influence of the culturally specific contexts from which it originated i e North America and Western Europe and to also include other cultural perspectives in the discussion This book illustrates a convergent approach among different cultures in identifying the main issues raised by neuroscience and emerging technologies This should be taken as a starting point for advancing in the search for shared solutions which are if not definitive at least sufficiently reliable to be translated into democratic deliberative processes Learning from Islam Kamal al-Kanady,2012-05-23 Trust is debating the Israel Palestine conflict with a conservative Sunni barber holding a straight razor to your throat Kamal al Kanady An immigrant white Christian businessman from Canada writes about his experiences in a majority Islamic country in the Middle East He is a family man a management consultant and one of those scholarly types that reads history books for entertainment He has been learning not just Arabic and business but learning from Islam about how he would like to live as a Christian This book is a call to humility and inclusion in Christian Muslim dialogue There are more than a billion of each faith on the planet now and the relationship between the world s two largest faiths is too important to be left to the minority of priests and imams to sort out Regular everyday Muslims and Christians need to be building bridges investing in understanding and approaching each other with a humble orthodoxy Perhaps we could start by simply inviting each other over for tea Religion, politics and ethnicity in iran: investigating the case of the sunni deobandis Hoshang Noraiee,2022-06-30 This project evolved out of my research on several other top ics concerning militant Islam among Sunnis in Iran Deobandis and female Deobandi madares Since then several more informants have sincerely come forward to help me update my information on the current research Dilemmas of Authenticity Zaid Adhami,2025-05-07 The past two decades have witnessed pervasive anxieties in US Muslim communities around a perceived crisis of faith As Zaid Adhami argues in this richly textured ethnography these concerns are fundamentally about the pressures and dilemmas of authenticity what it really means to be a Muslim While discussions about authenticity in Islam typically focus on maintaining tradition and competing claims to true Islam Adhami focuses instead on the powerful idea of being true to one s own self and what it means to have genuine belief Drawing on extensive conversations with American Muslims and careful readings of broader communal discourse Adhami shows that this drive for personal authenticity plays out in complicated ways It can produce deep doubt while also serving as the grounds to affirm tradition It can converge with revivalist modes of piety but it can also prompt emphatic challenges to communal orthodoxies Through vivid storytelling and sensitive analysis Adhami illuminates why religious doubt is often a source of intense anxiety
