Geobulletin Geological Society of South Africa, 2008 Quarterly news bulletin Kwartaallikse nuusbuletin Universities, Employability and Human Development Melanie Walker, Samuel Fongwa, 2017-01-20 The book makes a significant contribution to critical higher education studies specifically to graduate employability research and to capabilities and education research The book moves beyond the simplistic conception of alleged gaps in graduate skills and mismatches between employers and universities and instead provides an innovative multi dimensional and intersectional human capabilities conceptualisation of graduate employability The book challenges an individualised notion of employability instead locating employability issues in social and economic conditions and argues that employability choices cannot be divorced from inequality Qualitative and quantitative data from multiple case study universities in South Africa are used to explore the perceptions and experiences of diverse students lecturers support officers and employers regarding what each university is doing or should be doing to enhance graduate economic opportunities and contribute to inclusive development The book will be highly relevant to students scholars and researchers in the fields of education and sociology particularly those with an interest in graduate employability

XXX International Congress of Psychology: Abstracts Michele Robert, 2017-10-03 The abstracts of the XXX International Congress of Psychology July 2012 Cape Town are published as a supplement to Volume 47 of the International Journal of Psychology The published volume includes the abstracts of the invited addresses symposia oral and poster presentations numbering over 5 000 separate contributions and creating an invaluable overview of the discipline of psychological science around the world today

Comprehensive Internationalization John K. Hudzik, 2014-11-20 This book is a timely insight into the internationalization of higher education institutions The internationalization of higher education is a global phenomenon but with substantial variation in how it is made operational in individual institutions Comprehensive Internationalization focuses on desirable practices in institutions and their actual approaches to implement a more integrated strategic or comprehensive global engagement across their core missions teaching research and service Part I of the book investigates a wide range of issues governing the internationalization of institutions Outlining the origins meaning and evolution toward more strategic and comprehensive forms of internationalization building an understanding of the meanings of comprehensive internationalization as well as common aspirations when linked to different types of institutions understanding the rationales and motivations for internationalization and intended results creating an institutional vision and culture to support comprehensive internationalization and implementing key strategies for successful internationalization in terms of practical actions and programs and results including identifying and ameliorating barriers engaging organizational change assessing outcomes and obtaining resources Part II of the book offers case stories from institutions across the globe which describe varying pathways toward more comprehensive internationalization Institutions were chosen to reflect the diversity of higher education and approaches to internationalization An analysis of the cases uncovers similarities and differences as well as common lessons to be learned With contributions from mainland Europe Australia the USA the UK Latin America Singapore and South Africa the global application of the book is unparalleled Comprehensive Internationalization will be of vital interest to a wide variety of higher education institutional leaders and managers as they address the problems and solutions for institutional internationalization available to them in a rapidly changing educational world and a 21st Century global environment Global Encounters Iris Guske, 2011-05-25 Scholars throughout the world have come together again in a second book to share their most successful teaching practices and concerns in the areas of cross cultural studies and international education Many disciplines are represented and diverse subjects are discussed science literacy and worldview perspective second language acquisition student mobility and international universities teacher professional development and government programs for disadvantaged children zoos industrial paintings and dress designs as cultural artifacts Presentations on these topics are the result of papers given at the annual meeting of the Worldwide Forum on Education and Culture founded 10 years ago in Rome Italy The organization regularly attracts some 100 scholars and practitioners in the fields of education literacy language learning communication and inter cultural studies from all five continents to its annual congress in Rome These conferences as well as this up to date compilation of multi disciplinary academic papers are meant to highlight the growing need for culturally sensitive education that draws on the strengths of both traditional teaching methods and technology rich forms of instruction as well as a host of national and international programs designed to empower teachers and students alike Engaged educators whose research and or critical discourse in classrooms all over the world has given rise to the present volume thus hope to share with a wider audience how they impart knowledge foster skills and nurture qualities in the next generation of global citizens that will enable them to negotiate their personal and professional lives in our modern world Even though communities may no longer be characterized by physical distances as barriers to communicative interchanges perceived and real rifts between different cultures are nevertheless coming alarmingly close to preventing meaningful communication from bringing about true understanding at the individual and societal levels The ontogenesis of the Worldwide Forum on Education and Culture is seen here clearly in the perspectives and presentations of diverse academics who are dedicated to teaching and learning toward the greater goal as Matthew Arnold said in Literature and Science of knowing ourselves and the world Touch, Pause, Engage! Liz McGregor, 2011-08-29 South Africa is a land of contrasts as the tourist brochures promise and this is true for the game of rugby From the Pretoria heartland to the aspirant Eastern Cape from the hardscrabble Cape Flats to the islands of privilege at Bishops and Grey College No other rugby playing nation has to grapple with so much diversity Different languages classes races and cultures each bearing the wounds of the country's fractured past have to be melded into winning teams Liz McGregor has spent the past three years shadowing Currie Cup Super 14 and Springbok teams across the country and has come to the conclusion that it is this very diversity combined with the pain of the past and the dreams of a great united future that provide the elusive alchemy that separates a good team from a great one Touch Pause Engage is more than a book about rugby It is an intimate look at how South Africa's erstwhile elite is adapting to its new circumstances Team South Africa has been through many a maul and bruising scrum but is inching closer and closer to the tryline Liz McGregor is a veteran author and journalist who started off her career on leading South African newspapers and subsequently moved to Britain where she worked for the Guardian for several years Her first book Khabzela The Life and Times of a South African laid bare the complex reasoning behind a DJ's refusal to take medication to stave off AIDS She has co edited and contributed to two collections of essays At Risk and Load shedding Second
