The Pharmacist's Guide to Evidence-Based Medicine for Clinical Decision Making Patrick J. Bryant, Heather A. Pace, 2008-08-31 Take the Practical Approach to Applying EBM Principles Pharmacists who make clinical decisions based on experience alone overestimate the efficacy and underestimate the safety risks of drugs This leads to variations in services and treatment that result in inappropriate care lack of care and increased healthcare costs Evidence based medicine EBM employs the scientific method as the key source of knowledge for making clinical decisions This easy to use new guide provides a practical approach for confidently applying EBM principles in daily practice It s a straightforward process that allows pharmacists to incorporate their own clinical judgment while they make firm decisions and recommendations based on results of rigorously conducted clinical trials Based on a five step process perfected over 10 years at the University of Missouri Kansas City School of Pharmacy this exciting new method makes it easy to apply the EBM approach in clinical settings The new process streamlines the highly technical and complex original EBM method greatly reducing its complexity while maintaining rigor Categorizing quality of the evidence in a simple and logical manner it provides critical time sensitive support for clinical decision making

Miracles for Breakfast Danny Brooks,2008-08-25 I was lost in more ways than I can count I d lost my way lost my family lost my friends I was totally screwed up from all the acid trips and the speed and the MDA binges with strange coloured animals flitting by me seeing and hearing things that weren't there I knew I had done something to myself that I had crossed a line I knew I was messed up in a bad way I'd seen the end of Danny Brooks in an alleyway with a needle sticking out of my arm But God had another idea He wouldn't let me forsake the life He'd given me My spirit cried out for help from a place of black despair I believe this book is one of the reasons He kept me alive He wanted me to share my story of loss and redemption No matter how badly strung out you are there is always hope There is always Him to call on Faith can make you clean Faith can keep you sober Faith can give you your life back and your dignity family and friends My story isn't pretty but my hope is that it will be a light at the end of the tunnel for you or a loved one who has lost his way May the way be found
