This is a study with special reference to university entrance written in 1949 which started as an enquiry into the performance of a group of university scholarship holders in their First Year examinations. It developed into an examination of the transition from school to university and is concerned primarily with the problems of London and the provincial universities though there is much that is relevant to the problems of universities elsewhere. The investigation originated in the concern which was felt amongst the staffs of universities about the general standard of student attainment. Dissertation Abstracts, 1960 Abstracts of dissertations and monographs in microform The Developing Person Through Childhood and Adolescence, Sixth Edition Kathleen Stassen Berger, 2003 The new edition of the acclaimed classroom favorite for chronologically organized child development courses Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists
