Resources in Education ,2001 Informing the Practice of Teaching Using Formative and Interim Assessment Robert W. Lissitz,2013-03-01 This book focuses on interim and formative assessments as distinguished from the more usual interest in summative assessment I was particularly interested in seeing what the experts have to say about a full system of assessment This book has particular interest in what information a teacher a school or even a state could collect that monitors the progress of a student as he or she learns The authors were asked to think about assessing the effects of teaching and learning throughout the student s participation in the curriculum This book is the product of a conference by the Maryland Assessment Research Center for Education Success MARCES with funding from the Maryland State Department of Education

The National Assessment of College Student Learning Sal Corrallo,1996 This report summarizes proceedings and conclusions of a two day national planning workshop to further the assessment of national postsecondary outcomes as suggested by Goal 6 5 of the National Education Goals and to determine how the National Center for Education Statistics NCES and the states might work more effectively to develop mutually supportive postsecondary assessment activities and policies Conclusions of the workshop indicate that there is no immediate possibility of aggregating state level data on postsecondary outcomes to create a usable national indicator But they do suggest other ways in which the states and the federal government might work together to improve the quality of the data Section 1 provides background information and an overview of the workshop Section 2 presents results of an inventory of state activities Section 3 describes the workshop s major discussion themes and conclusions concerning 1 the current political context for postsecondary assessment 2 the corresponding methodological context and 3 results of working sessions Section 4 provides conclusions policy implications and possible next steps Appendices include in addition to the workshop agenda and participants list a paper describing current activities of the NCES and individual background papers on each state s activities in postsecondary assessment Also appended are the texts of the following prepared papers What Political Leaders Expect from Postsecondary Assessment Charles S Lenth Perspective from the National Education Goals Panel Ken Nelson The State Perspective Mark D Musick The Virginia Experience Margaret A Miller Making Assessment Essential without Legislative Mandates The Missouri Experience Ava L Fajen et al and Methodological Concerns An ETS Perspective John Mazzeo MAH Building Vocabulary: Grade 8: Kit eBook Timothy Rasinski, Nancy Padak, Rick M.
