As economic and cultural commodities, McCallum points out how such screen adaptations play a crucial role in the cultural reproduction and transformation of childhood and youth and indeed are a rich resource for the examination of changing cultural values and ideologies, particularly around contested narratives of childhood. The chapters examine various representations of childhood as shifting states of innocence and wildness, liminality, marginalisation and invisibility. The book focuses on a range of literary and film genres from classic texts to experimental, carnivalesque, magical realist and cross-cultural texts. Mort Terry Pratchett, 1998 Encounters with Death Leilah Wendell, 1996 A unique compendium of anthropomorphic personifications of death from historical to present-day phenomenon, including traditional and non-traditional death encounters told in the words of those who have experienced this growing phenomenon.
