The Princeton Review, 1854 The Biblical Repertory and Princeton Review Charles Hodge, Lyman Hotchkiss Atwater, 1854 The Development of the Italian Schools of Painting Charlotte Van Marle, 2013-06-29 With the sudden and immature death of the Author this work which was planned to comprise 21 volumes has had to end with the 18th From a number of students and art critics requests have reached the publisher and myself that an index should be made of the volumes which have been published Herein their desire has been satisfied This general index is divided into two parts one for names of places so that with the greatest ease and without loss of time the student can find all the Italian paintings from early Christian times up to the end of the Quattrocento which are scattered throughout the churches galleries and private collections of Europe and America For the larger towns the material is divided into the following headings I Churches and Monasteries II Public Collections III Public Buildings and Streets IV Private Collections and this order though not indicated has always been followed for the smaller localities The second division contains the names of artists each one accompanied by dates and where possible an indication of the site of his activity The chief aim of this index is to make it easier to consult the enormous amount of material treated in the 18 volumes For the traveller who desires to know what paintings are to be found in any town this index should be a valuable vade mecum Sacred Treasures of the Mass St. Leonard of Port Maurice, 2014-07-25 The Mass is truly a Sacred Treasure and alas our cold dead faith allows it to remain so If we valued it as we ought we would hurry every morning to the church careless of the snows of winter and the heats of summer in order to get a share of the riches of this treasure The Saints knew the value of one Mass that was a dark day in their calendar on which they were deprived of the happy privilege of saying or hearing Mass Sacred Treasures of the Mass by St Leonard of Port Maurice will stir the soul to practice the Catholic faith with zeal and ardour This saintly writer truly inspires the Christian soul to strive for perfection through deep and devout devotion to the Mass Art Through the Ages Helen Gardner, 1926 The World's Master Paintings, 1992 Dictionary of Painters and Engravers Michael Bryan, 1889 Masters in Art, 1906 Each number is devoted to one artist and includes bibliography of the artist
