The Reception of Northrop Frye ,2021-08-31 The widespread opinion is that Northrop Frye s influence reached its zenith in the 1960s and 1970s after which point he became obsolete his work buried in obscurity This almost universal opinion is summed up in Terry Eagleton s 1983 rhetorical question Who now reads Frye In The Reception of Northrop Frye Robert D Denham catalogues what has been written about Frye books articles translations dissertations and theses and reviews in order to demonstrate that the attention Frye s work has received from the beginning has progressed at a geomantic rate Denham also explores what we can discover once we have a fairly complete record of Frye s reception in front of us such as Hayden White s theory of emplotments applied to historical writing and Byron Alm n s theory of musical narrative The sheer quantity of what has been written about Frye reveals that the only valid response to Eagleton s rhetorical question is a very large and growing number the growth being not incremental but exponential Unsung Hero of the Falklands War

Anthony Cumming,2025-12-30 The contribution of Commodore Michael Clapp has been overlooked when compared with the other senior Falklands commanders and the time is ripe to redress the balance Despite commanding the Amphibious Task Group and being responsible for Operation Sutton the successful San Carlos landing Clapp was overlooked for promotion instead received several snubs including not being allowed a seat at the top tables of public events celebrating this stunning victory Sadly his naval superiors showed no interest in learning the amphibious lessons of the War preferring to focus on supporting the Army in a potential conflict with the Soviet Union in Europe Michael Clapp s career has illustrated many of the corrosive effects of inter service rivalry and the author asks if the military establishment has now lost interest in amphibious operations in their purest form This highly readable and controversial work covers Clapp s distinguished wider career which included active service in Korea the Cyprus Emergency and the Indonesia Malayan Confrontation where he gained a reputation for decisive action He was an observer and squadron commander in the Fleet Air Arm took command of several warships and served in staff posts playing a crucial role in the introduction of the famous Sea Harrier V STOL strike aircraft before his appointment as Commodore Amphibious Warfare N.E.L.A.
