Take Him to the Streets Jonathan Gainsbrugh, 1985 Creating Generous Congregations David L. Heetland, 2020-07-21 A problem facing many churches today is the lack of strong leadership in the area of stewardship particularly the stewardship of financial resources Church leaders clergy and laity have had little or no training in this area and they feel uncomfortable and embarrassed in encouraging financial support for the church s ministries Failure to provide decisive leadership in this area has had negative consequences for the church including a decreasing percentage of charitable dollars directed toward churches and a growing lack of understanding among church members of the relationship between giving and spiritual growth Creating Generous Congregations is written to assist church leaders in gaining necessary expertise in the stewardship of financial resources so that persons will be invited to grow spiritually and the various ministries of the church will flourish The Pastoral Search Journey John Vonhof, 2010-03-01 Most churches have sought out a new pastor many times yet search committees often feel as though they are inventing the process from scratch In The Pastoral Search Journey John Vonhof provides detailed guidance for search committees to ensure a good match between pastor and congregation This is Vonhof s third book about the pastoral search but the first to discuss interim pastors transitions between pastors and the use of the Internet and digital media Vonhof advises congregational leaders on establishing the search committee ensuring the congregation is cared for during the pastoral vacancy conducting the congregational self study and creating an information packet finding communicating with and interviewing candidates determining selection criteria as well as evaluating and recommending candidates managing call negotiations and finally welcoming the congregation s new pastor Sample letters forms and other tools are provided The Living Church , 1958

Ekenna,2014-07-17 From an innocuous encounter in an airplane to discourses of the enrichment of the only philosophy his own father handed down to him through issues of concern for dereliction of education to building a wholesome and homogeneous community He highlights issues through his own journey through life and the numerous recordation of those he had made and shared in a span of close to two decades blending fun and earnest graveness without being preachy or sanctimonious Drawing from the Desiderata and his favorite prayer Good Morning God he uses an engaging discourse form to deliver the message that our stories individually and collectively written or unwritten is the culminant of the worlds story In this book he shows that inspiration is not farfetched and that from effecting liveability in our immediate surrounding we can shape our story to effect points of contact and communication that will eventually give the world story the great Story a chance to develop Saving Souls, Serving Society Heidi Rolland Unruh,Ronald J. Sider,2005-10-06 Recent years have seen unprecedented attention to faith based institutions as agents of social change spurred in part by cuts in public funding for social services and accompanied by controversy about the separation of church and state The debate over faith based initiatives has highlighted a small but growing segment of churches committed to both saving souls and serving society What distinguishes faith based from secular activism How do religious organizations express their religious identity in the context of social services How do faith based service providers interpret the connection between spiritual methodologies and socioeconomic outcomes How does faith motivate and give meaning to social ministry Drawing on case studies of fifteen Philadelphia area Protestant churches with active outreach Saving Souls Serving Society seeks to answer these and other pressing questions surrounding the religious dynamics of social ministry While church based programs often look similar to secular ones in terms of goods or services rendered they may show significant differences in terms of motivations desired outcomes and interpretations of meaning Church based programs also differ from one another in terms of how they relate evangelism to their social outreach agenda Heidi Rolland Unruh and Ronald J Sider explore how churches navigate the tension between their spiritual mission and the constraints on evangelism in the context of social services The authors examine the potential contribution of religious dynamics to social outcomes as well as the relationship between mission orientations and social capital Unruh and Sider introduce a new vocabulary for describing the religious components and spiritual meanings embedded in social action and provide a typology of faith based organizations and programs Their analysis yields a framework for Protestant mission orientations that makes room for the diverse ways that churches interrelate spiritual witness and social compassion Based on their observations the authors offer a constructive approach to church state partnerships and provide a far more objective understanding of faith based social services than previously available
