Republican Citizens, Precarious Subjects Jeremy F. Lane,2020 Over recent decades concerns at the increased scarcity and precarity of salaried employment have dominated political struggles theoretical debates and cultural representations in France This study argues that such concerns are evidence of a profound shift in contemporary French economy culture and society Engaging with work in political economy and sociology the book sketches a new interpretative framework the better to understand the nature and implications of these profound changes It examines the challenges such changes have posed to fundamental French republican values arguing they have opened up a rift between older notions of French republican citizenship and the precarious forms of subjectivity characteristic of post Fordist labour The book traces the symptoms of this rift in a range of cinematic and literary representations of the contemporary workplace as these depict the dilemmas faced the trajectories followed and the geographical regions inhabited by French workers of different ages sexes social classes and ethnicities The Architectural Forum ,1925 New Pencil Points ,1925 Business Franchise Guide Commerce Clearing House,1980 Building Age ,1925 The Consultant ,1998 Restaurant Management ,1928
