success with a surprising number of these works being commended for their innovative redeployment of literary tactics drawn from early twentieth century literary modernism But this strategy is not a new one Across more than a century writers from Kate O'Brien to Sally Rooney have manipulated and remade modernism to draw attention to the vexed nature of female privacy exploring what unfolds when the amorphous nature of private consciousness bumps up against external ordering structures in the public world Living amid the tenaciously conservative imperatives of church and state in Ireland their female characters are seen to embrace reject and rework the ritual of prayer the fixity of material objects the networks of the digital world and the ordered narrative of the book Such structures provide a stability that is valuable and even necessary for such characters to flourish as well as an instrument of containment or repression that threatens to and in some cases does destroy them The writers studied here among them Elizabeth Bowen Edna O'Brien Anne Enright Anna Burns Claire Louise Bennett and Eimear McBride employ the modernist mode in part to urge readers to recognize that female interiority the prompt for many of the movement's illustrious formal experiments continues to provide a crucial but often overlooked mechanism to imagine ways around and through seemingly intransigent social problems such as class inequity political violence and sexual abuse

Border States in the Work of Tom Mac Intyre Catriona Ryan, 2012-01-17 This work analyses the prose and drama of the Irish writer Tom Mac Intyre and the concept of paleo postmodernism It examines how Mac Intyre balances traditional themes with experimentation which in the Irish literary canon is unusual This book argues that Mac Intyre's position in the Irish literary canon is an idiosyncratic one in that he combines two contrary aspects of Irish literature between what Beckett terms as the Yeatsian antiquarians who valorize the Victorian Gael and the others whose aesthetic involves a European influenced breakdown of the object which is associated with Beckett Mac Intyre's experimentation involves a breakdown of the object in order to uncover an unconscious Irish mythological and linguistic space in language His approach to language experimentation is Yeatsian and this is what the author terms as paleo postmodern Thus the project considers how Mac Intyre incorporates Yeatsian revivalism with postmodern deconstruction in his drama and short stories

Canadian Stationer and Office Appliance Journal ... , 1922 Jan 1930 Feb 1932 most issues include the Trade edition of the Canadian bookman

Wild Colonial Girl Lisa Colletta, Maureen O'Connor, 2006-08-15 Since the 1960 publication of her first novel The Country Girls award winning Irish writer Edna O'Brien has been both celebrated and maligned Praised for her lyrical prose and vivid female characters and attacked for her frank treatment of sexuality and alleged sensationalism O'Brien and her work seem always to spawn controversy including the past banning in Ireland of several of her works O'Brien's attention to women's concerns such as sex romance marriage and childbirth has often relegated her to critical neglect at best and at worst outright contempt This essay collection promises to be a long overdue critical reevaluation and exciting rediscovery of her oeuvre Wild Colonial Girl situates O'Brien in Irish contexts that allow for an appraisal of her significant contribution to a specifically Irish women's literary tradition while attesting to the potency of writing against patriarchal conventions Each chapter's clear and detailed readings of O'Brien's fiction build a convincing case for her literary political and cultural importance providing an invaluable critical guide for an enriched appreciation of O'Brien and her work
