Funeral Rites Reformation for Any African Ethnic Community Based on the Proposed New Funeral Practices for the Agikuyu Johnson Nganga Mbugua, 2016-06-17 This book has been written on the premise that the mode of coping with death of virtually all African ethnic communities has taken proportions and turns that are neither cultural scriptural nor necessary Current rites are complicated time consuming expensive and are leaving most families and their neighbors impoverished They have been extremely commercialized and a large number of Africans do not have resources to bury their dead the modern way Were the Agikuyu read Africans to curb numerous funeral demands which they deem necessary and customary when in actual fact they are not funerals for them would become cheaper faster and simpler would be decent enough for the dead would take care of those left behind and would be environmentally friendly How Africans in the Diaspora away from their ancestral homeland should cope with death is also addressed Also addressed is the issue of cremation It is
