The Women Who Made Television Funny David C. Tucker,2015-03-26 Most of the bright and talented actresses who made America laugh in the 1950s are off the air today but their pioneering Hollywood careers irrevocably changed the face of television comedy These smart and sassy women successfully negotiated the hazards of the male dominated workplace with class and humor and the work they did in the 1950s is inventive still by today s standards Unable to fall back on strong language shock value or racial and sexual epithets the female sitcom stars of the 1950s entertained with pure talent and screen savvy As they did so they helped to lay the foundation for the development of television comedy This book pays tribute to 10 prominent television actresses who played lead roles in popular comedy shows of the 1950s Each chapter covers the works and personalities of one actress Lucille Ball I Love Lucy Gracie Allen The George Burns and Gracie Allen Show Eve Arden Our Miss Brooks Spring Byington December Bride Joan Davis I Married Joan Anne Jeffreys Topper Donna Reed The Donna Reed Show Ann Sothorn Private Secretary and The Ann Sothorn Show Gale Storm My Little Margie and The Gale Storm Show Oh Susanna and Betty White Life with Elizabeth For each star a career sketch is provided concentrating primarily on her television work but also noting achievements in other areas Appendices offer cast and crew lists a chronology and an additional biographical sketch of 10 less familiar actresses who deserve recognition

100 Things We've Lost to the Internet Pamela Paul,2021-10-26 The acclaimed editor of The New York Times Book Review takes readers on a nostalgic tour of the pre Internet age offering powerful insights into both the profound and the seemingly trivial things we ve lost NAMED ONE OF THE TEN BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY CHICAGO TRIBUNE AND THE DALLAS MORNING NEWS A deft blend of nostalgia humor and devastating insights People Remember all those ingrained habits cherished ideas beloved objects and stubborn preferences from the pre Internet age They re gone To some of those things we can say good riddance But many we miss terribly Whatever our emotional response to this departed realm we are faced with the fact that nearly every aspect of modern life now takes place in filtered isolated corners of cyberspace a space that has slowly subsumed our physical habitats replacing or transforming the office our local library a favorite bar the movie theater and the coffee shop where people met one another s gaze from across the room Even as we ve gained the ability to gather without leaving our house many of the fundamentally human experiences that have sustained us have disappeared In one hundred glimpses of that pre Internet world Pamela Paul editor of The New York Times Book Review presents a captivating record enlivened with illustrations of the world before cyberspace from voicemails to blind dates to punctuation to civility There are the small losses postcards the blessings of an adolescence largely spared of documentation the Rolodex and the genuine surprises at high school reunions But there are larger repercussions too weaker memories the inability to entertain oneself and the utter demolition of privacy 100 Things We ve Lost to the Internet is at once an evocative swan song for a disappearing era and perhaps a guide to reclaiming just a little bit more of the world IRL

The Seasons of My Life John Lentz, 2022-09-06 The Seasons of My Life is a book that I wish my mother had written Growing up I was never very interested in hearing her tell stories of her life I was always more interested in going out to play As I got older and had my own family I was always too busy with my life to sit and listen to her experiences How sorry I am now that I never really knew my own mother This is also a book that I hope my kids and grandkids will someday write I hope it will also be inspirational to many others to start their own family tradition How great would it be to pick up a book and read about your parents grandparents or even great grandparents to know what their life was really like way back when to know of the struggles they faced their likes and dislikes successes and failures their loves and their regrets and what made them the way they were I also believe this would be a wonderful book for book club members to read It will get the thoughts and memories flowing back about their own life experiences I wrote this book so that my kids and grandkids and also the rest of my family and friends will know who I am and why I do the things I do For others who read it this book is not for you to know who I was but to get you to think about who you are This is the second book I have written My first book titled Our Journey is still available on Amazon and Barnes Noble It covers a ten year period in my life from the time my wife was first diagnosed with Alzheimer s until she took her last breath while in my arms
