Journalism Jason Rogers, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1922 edition Excerpt new account firmly on its feet before seeking to split or dilute the appropriation Since issuing the map and list of newspapers presented in this section in the form of a full newspaper page ad which has been printed in over one hundred newspapers and the distribution of the page in connection with the other sections of this collection to 10 000 advertisers and space buyers many hundreds of letters of commendation have been received together with information that the data had been used as the basis of national campaigns In a nutshell this is the sort of definite information which a prospective advertiser should have before him in the preparation of a plan for a campaign It is the sort of information that very few experts would take the trouble to prepare for owing to constantly changing conditions a list prepared to day would be changed to morrow With perhaps three or four exceptions every newspaper represented in the list is a sound and reputable publication conducted by men loyal to the best interests of their country and absolutely independent of political or other outside control The omission of the names of certain newspapers of large circulation may be noted but in leaving them off I have exercised my own privilege of not assisting them in their general policy of destruction of what is best in society industry and our American democracy and freedom The advertiser can make every dollar of his investment do a full 100 cents worth of execution which is impossible when he is forced to buy general medium circulation much of which is in territory unrelated and distant from the field he most desires to stimulate The manufacturer can make his advertising in daily newspapers lead directly to the shops of local dealers Establishing a Newspaper Oliver Fletcher Byxbee,2015-02-19 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Newspaper Making Jason Rogers,1922

FOWLER,2018 The W. G. N Chicago Tribune,2016-08-01 Excerpt from The W G N A Handbook of Newspaper Administration Editorial Advertising Production Circulation Minutely Depicting in Word and Picture How It s Done Horace White survives through direct descendants as a Tribune family to this day Among all these colleagues of his Medill seems to have been the driver the man who though he was all jour nalist was also practical printer In a word he was no empiric though he was not afraid Of experiments To the last detail of newspaper making he knew what he wanted to do and how to do it Through his initiative a steam press was installed and the first copper faced type ever used by an Illinois newspaper was bought He had an abiding dis taste for the other irons in the fire and that was and is good for this newspaper Alas the great Hippolyte Taine once said there are writers who were born to write newspaper articles and who write only books Joseph Medill was not that kind of a journalist His product was not indifferent books but great journalism He believed that to prepare to inspire and daily to assemble excellent newspaper articles was a grand work which demanded all of skill and fortitude that good minds and honest hearts possessed Thus The Tribune got its real start with a growing town and an honest man who was also a man of vision About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Newspaper Making, Handy Reference Guide for All Newspaper Workers, and Students of Journalism, 1922 Jason Rogers, 2015-06-15 Excerpt from Newspaper Making Handy Reference Guide for All Newspaper Workers and Students of Journalism 1922 In response to requests for the republication of various articles in newspaper trade papers by the author together with The Fundamentals of Newspaper Building and Newspaper Efficiency which were originally published in pamphlet form and found wide circulation and are now out of print this book is produced in uniform size pages with Newspaper Building and Building Newspaper Advertising for the use of students in the Schools of Journalism and newspaper workers In such brief treatment as is given to the many very important views regarding newspaper activity the covering of hundreds of newspaper efforts in a paragraph or two it is impossible to give details which are perhaps just as important and interesting as the scheme referred to but to present the idea is to provide food for thought to the student Worth while newspaper success is more largely the result of intelligent purpose than the mere publication of printed pages presenting what an editor thinks the public wants and which will sell papers Too many of our newspapers of the past and even of the present day represent the output of a mere grouping of printed pages carelessly thrown together About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the
