Biblical Scholarship and the Church Allan K. Jenkins, Patrick Preston, 2016-04-15 Conflicting claims to authority in relation to the translation and interpretation of the Bible have been a recurrent source of tension within the Christian church and were a key issue in the Reformation debate This book traces how the authority of the Septuagint and later that of the Vulgate was called into question by the return to the original languages of scripture and how linguistic scholarship was seen to pose a challenge to the authority of the teaching and tradition of the church It shows how issues that remained unresolved in the early church re emerged in first half of the sixteenth century with the publication of Erasmus Greek Latin New Testament of 1516 After examining the differences between Erasmus and his critics the authors contrast the situation in England where Reformation issues were dominant and Italy where the authority of Rome was never in question Focusing particularly on the dispute between Thomas More and William Tyndale in England and between Ambrosius Catharinus and Cardinal Cajetan in Italy this book brings together perspectives from biblical studies and church history and provides access to texts not previously translated into English

Justification and the Law Robbert A. Veen, 2006 The third and final book in a series on the meaning of the Torah for Christian ethics In this book Dr Robbert Veen explores the reasons behind the rejection of the role of the Torah in dogma history The doctrine of justification by faith in its Protestant and later in its evangelical shape contributed to the downfall of the Torah in Protestant ethics In the Mennonite version of the doctrine things look a little better The other two books in the series are Fulfillment of the Law and The End of the Law In the School of Contemplation André Louf, Andre Louf, 2015 This work was originally published in French as A L Ecole de la Contemplation A Lethielleux 2004 Remarks on the Revised English Version of the Greek New Testament Benjamin Wills Newton, 1881 The Earliest English Translation of the First Three Books of the De Imitatione Christi John Kells Ingram, 1893 Francis of Assisi - The Prophet: Early Documents, vol. 3 Regis J. Findley, Mary C. Findley , science history homeschool evolution young earth creation ancient manuscripts The Bibliotheca Sacra , 1869 Bibliotheca sacra , 1869 The Righteousness of God Charles Lee Irons, 2015-03-10 Advocates of the New Perspective on Paul appeal to the view that righteousness in biblical theology is a Verhältnissbegriff relational concept This is the view that righteousness does not mean conformity to a norm nor is it an essentially legal concept rather righteousness denotes the fulfillment of the demands of a relationship since the relationship itself is the norm This relational interpretation of righteousness was first put forward by Hermann Cremer in 1899 and exercised a profound influence in biblical scholarship throughout the 20th century It lies at the root of the New Perspective claim that the righteousness of God in Paul is a cipher for God s saving faithfulness to his covenant a view defended by N T Wright among others Charles Lee Irons provides a critical examination of Cremer s chief arguments for the relational covenant faithfulness interpretation The author argues instead for the view that the righteousness of God in Rom 1 17 3 21 22 10 3 2 Cor 5 21 and Phil 3 9 is the status of righteousness that comes from God as a gift Wrong-Doing, Truth-Telling Michel Foucault, 2014-06-04 Three years before his death Michel Foucault gave a series of lectures at the Catholic University of Louvain that have remained relatively unknown until only recently Entitled Wrong Doing Truth Telling these lectures provides the missing link between Foucault s early work on sexuality and punishment and his later work on Greek and Roman antiquity Ranging broadly from Homer to the 20th century Foucault traces how the early ethical acts of truth telling in ancient Greece gradually metamorphosed into acts of self incrimination in monastic times and ultimately into the birth and rise of psychiatry as the foundation of modern penology criminology and criminal justice For Foucault self incrimination no longer did the work necessary to quell justice because by the 19th century we wanted to know more than just the fact of wrongdoing we wanted to know who the criminal was not just whether the accused committed the crime but what it was about him that made him commit the crime An avowal of wrong doing was no longer sufficient psychiatric expertise was now necessary and that development marks the birth of discipline and modern criminal justice made so famous by Foucault In Search for a Theology Capable of Mourning H. Martin Rumscheidt, 2017-10-20 To what extent are the children of

Holocaust perpetrators to feel remorseful or responsible for their parents wrongdoing Is the yearning by those offspring of Nazi sympathizers for forgiveness justified or should they separate themselves from their parents or relatives and ignore the history Such dilemmas have gnawed at theologian Martin Rumscheidt ever since at age eighteen he discovered his father s complicity in using Jewish slave labor at his workplace IG Farben He has written and spoken extensively about his journey in search of what he calls a theology of mourning that would preserve his concept of the reality of God and still recognize the reality at times grim reality of life

The Faith of St. Paul Roy A. Harrisville,2019-03-15 For generations scholars who study the letters of St Paul have argued about being in Christ and justification by faith as though they were competing theologies They have argued about faith as divine gift or human work and more recently the faith of Jesus Christ has been called into question Harrisville proposes a provocative and simple solution to these issues by examining scholarly assumptions and presenting the faith of St Paul as a dynamic and life changing power Participation in Christ and righteousness by faith are actually complimentary expressions for the same concept The apostle s faith was not self engendered but a gift that transformed him into a believer Taking a more organic approach to understanding the faith of St Paul this book provides a path toward reconciling entrenched positions and providing a fresh perspective by presenting the apostle s concept of faith as a transformative gift of divine power
