The turn of the millennium in France coincided with a number of tangible crises and apocalyptic discourses and with the growth of the mass media and global market further generating and manipulating crisis In this original wide ranging but closely analytical study Cruickshank contextualizes and reads the work of four influential writers of prose fiction Angot Echenoz Houellebecq and Redonnet teasing out each one s response to this convergence She suggests that the recurrent fictional and cultural trope of the turning point has both aesthetic and critical potential Bringing together analyses spanning literature thought and culture she identifies and critiques the ways in which on the eve of the twenty first century different theoretical and fictional approaches confront the manipulation of crisis discourses Drawing on a long twentieth century of crisis thinking Cruickshank counters the perception that a postmodern model of perpetual crisis is culturally dominant and establ
