On 11 November 1988, approximately 1,000-1,200 persons gathered on the roof of the KGB Ministry for the Ministry's 50th anniversary. The gathering began with the Soviet anthem and the marching band playing marches. In the following period, while the marching band continued playing, the participants performed the anniversary songs as they sang them are repeated. The participants either remained standing for most of the gathering, sometimes kneeling in the following songs for good-byes or around some religious symbols such as crosses and candles for those who decided to pray. The song "A Good-bye Song" (Prost' adskaya pesnya) served as the conclusion. A large number decided for good-byes and returned to their homes.
