Next Moment Poetry Poetry:

Poetry's Touch William Addison Waters, 2003 To whom does a poem speak Do poems really communicate with those they address Is reading poems like overhearing Like intimate conversation Like performing a script William Waters pursues these questions by closely reading a selection of poems that say you to a human being to the reader to the beloved or to the dead In any account of reading lyric poetry Waters argues there will be places where the participant roles of speaker intended hearer and bystander melt together or away these are moments of wonder Looking both at poetry s you and at how readers encounter it Waters asserts that poetic address shows literature pressing for a close relation with those into whose hands it may fall What is at stake for us as readers and critics is our ability to acknowledge the claims made on us by the works of art with which we engage In second person poems in a poem s touch we may come to see why poetry matters to us and how we in turn come to feel answerable to it Poetry s Touch takes as a central thread the poetry of Rainer Maria Rilke a writer whose work is unusually self conscious about poetic address The book also draws examples from a gamut of European and American poems ranging from archaic Greek inscriptions to Keats Dickinson and Ashbery Autobiographical Poetry in England and Spain, 1950-1980 Menotti Lerro, 2017-03-07 The volume traces the founding critical theories of the autobiographical genre from the Enlightenment period to the most recent developments which since the Sixties and the essays of Roy Pascal and Jean Starobinski have had a greater and greater influence It offers in contrast to the essential and by now classic definition of Philippe Lejeune an increased effectiveness of the poem to express the narrative purposes of autobiography recognizing poetic writing that has the extraordinary ability to say what the mortal language does not say to quote Leopardi The works of Seamus Heaney Thom Gunn Carlos Barral and Jaime Gil de Biedma are analyzed here and show an unveiling of the self through memories places and objects that often characterize them and that allow to whomever recalls one s own experience through writing the recovery and restoration of essential meanings to the reconstruction not only of subjective identity but also of one s own community Poetry and Dialogism M. Scanlon, C. Engbers, 2014-08-05 These essays extend an ongoing conversation on dialogic qualities of poetry by positing various foundations practices and purposes of poetic dialogism The authors enrich and diversify the theoretical discourse on dialogic poetry and connect it to fertile critical fields like ethnic studies translation studies and ethics and literature A Concordance to the Poems of Robert Browning Leslie Nathan Broughton, Benjamin Franklin Stelter, 1925 The Next Draft Brenda Miller, 2024-03-19 Essays inspiring readers to take an innovative approach to writing The Greatest Christmas Novels, Tales & Poems (Illustrated) Charles Dickens, Anthony Trollope, Mark Twain, Beatrix Potter, Louisa May Alcott, O.
