

Virglio, petite planète vivant au cœur de la galaxie Amarande. Monde de sable, de rocs et de broussailles illuminé par un immense lac allant d'un pôle à l'autre, sa faible population est régie par des gouverneurs autoproclamés dont les puissants pouvoirs télékinésiques ne souffrent aucune opposition, hormis celle de leurs pairs. Ces maîtres omnipotents se partagent des territoires regroupant des villes poussiéreuses et des tribus à mi-chemin entre traditions obscurantistes et technologie. Tels des vers dans le fruit, des trafiquants tentent de tirer profit du commerce de marchandises, et parfois d'êtres humains.

Eydenn, belle jeune fille de vingt ans et membre de la tribu des Keriosse, est devenue officieusement le porte-malheur de son clan suite à la perte successive de deux fiancés imposés par les traditions. Ces coutumes, elle est désormais décidée à les braver en prenant elle-même son destin en mains. Ce faisant, la rebelle et ses amis tentent de retrouver deux Keriosse, probablement enlevées par des trafiquants. Cette courageuse initiative les place en travers du chemin d'une fratrie de richissimes aristocrates venus de la planète Gallessa pour célébrer les funérailles de leur mère. Dès lors, les événements se précipitent, obligeant les uns à prendre de surprenantes décisions et les autres à subir de dramatiques destinées.
