of Death in Life John Behr,Conor Cunningham,2016-03-31 The relation between life and death is a subject of perennial relevance for all human beings and indeed the whole world and the entire universe in as much as according to the saying of ancient Greek philosophy all things that come into being pass away Yet it is also a topic of increasing complexity for life and death now appear to be more intertwined than previously or commonly thought Moreover the relation between life and death is also one of increasing urgency as through the twin phenomena of an increase in longevity unprecedented in human history and the rendering of death dying and the dead person all but invisible people living in the industrialized and post industrialized Western world of today have lost touch with the reality of death This radically new situation and predicament has implications medical ethical economic philosophical and not least theological that have barely begun to be addressed This volume gathers together essays by a distinguished and diverse group of scientists theologians philosophers and health practitioners originally presented in a symposium sponsored by the John Templeton Foundation
