Audience:

All ages

Time required:

15-60 minutes

Activity:

Before the youth arrive, the leader can use scissors to cut apart the Role Play Scenarios handout on the dotted lines.

Leader should choose one (or more) scenarios from the Role Play Scenarios handout. Each scenario will require at least two youth to role play (one side will model good sportsmanship while the other will model poor sportsmanship). - How do you think you would have acted naturally if you encountered that scenario?
- Does this activity make you think differently about how you model

This collection of new essays brings together the work of more than two dozen contributors from around the world who teach sportsmanship in a range of academic disciplines, including sociology, psychology, economics, education, kinesiology, and applied athletics. Topics include the moral ambiguities of cheating, recreation in prison, ethics and character formation, coaching perspectives, gender, race, and the portrayal of sportsmanship in film.
