 After the birth of the Protestant ecumenical movement in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and following the first great wave of universal Christian ecumenism in the 1960s and 1970s after the Second Vatican Council prominent theologians of nearly every ecclesial tradition charted new territory in the last decades of the twentieth century They crossed boundaries within their own ecclesial traditions and built bridges to other Christian churches churches that were once excluded from fellowship In the development of these new programs of ecumenical theology the theologians redefined their own confessional identities and in many cases crossed the liberal conservative divide within their own traditions This volume introduces this fascinating dynamic of theological mediation redefinition and generosity It shows how the ecumenical impulses which were directed outwardly to other traditions had reflexive effects inwardly Working in the realms of both historical and systematic theology the essays in this volume provide a critical analysis of the history of this general theological sentiment and offer an outlook for its future Contributors Brian D McLaren Foreword Paul Silas Peterson

Catholics and Anti-Catholicism in Chosŏn Korea Don Baker, Franklin Rausch, 2018-10-31 Korea s first significant encounter with the West occurred in the last quarter of the eighteenth century when a Korean Catholic community emerged on the peninsula Decades of persecution followed resulting in the deaths of thousands of Korean Catholics Don Baker provides an invaluable analysis of late Chosŏn 1392 1897 thought politics and society to help readers understand the response of Confucians to Catholicism and of Korean Catholics to years of violent harassment His analysis is informed by two remarkable documents expertly translated with the assistance of Franklin Rausch and annotated here for the first time an anti Catholic essay written in the 1780s by Confucian scholar Ahn Chŏngbok 1712 1791 and a firsthand account of the 1801 anti Catholic persecution by one of its last victims the religious leader Hwang Sayŏng 1775 1801 Confucian assumptions about Catholicism are revealed in Ahn s essay Conversation on Catholicism The work is based on the scholar s exchanges with his son in law who joined the small group of Catholics in the 1780s Ahn argues that Catholicism is immoral because it puts more importance on the salvation of one s soul than on what is best for one s family or community Conspicuously absent from his Conversation is the reason behind the conversions of his son in law and a few other young Confucian intellectuals Baker examines numerous Confucian texts of the time to argue that in the late eighteenth century Korean Confucians were tormented by a growing concern over human moral frailty Some among them came to view Catholicism as a way to overcome their moral weakness become virtuous and in the process gain eternal life These anxieties are echoed in Hwang s Silk Letter in which he details for the bishop in Beijing his persecution and the decade preceding it He explains why Koreans joined and some abandoned the Catholic faith and their devotion to the new religion in the face of torture and execution Together the two texts reveal much about not only Korean beliefs and values of two centuries ago but also how Koreans viewed their country and their king as well as China and its culture
