Unhealthy Language: Linguistic Investigations of Covid-19 Discourse Justyna Robinson, Roberta Piazza, Rodney Jones, 2024-10-01 The proposed volume reflects on the Coronavirus pandemic as a still evolving phenomenon and captures critically its socially constructed dimension The papers by well established international contributors deal with a variety of themes that range from the different discourses of the first and second lockdown the comparative responses to Covid in different parts of the world in light of the relationship between language and culture and the reflection of who the actors are who talk and are talked about in relation to the pandemic This last theme in particular offers a wide variety of responses from politicians and health experts communiqués to the voices of marginal individuals and groups like the refugees The overall questions the papers as a whole try to answer is whether the discourses of and around Covid are equalizing or inciting inequality whether they perpetuate existing structures of dominance and exclusion and if and how they contributed to language change The volume offers an opportunity to both discourse analysts and sociolinguists to cross paths and work together The variety of analytic approaches adopted in both linguistic fields from corpus assisted and computational approaches to survey and interview based studies guarantees a ground breaking interdisciplinary volume with contributions designed to include linguistic analysis at all levels including the plane of grammatical description lexis phonology and discourse analysis The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm,1911 The Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa: a commentary Celestine Nyamu Musembi ,Trésor Muhindo Makunya,2023-08-28 The first in a series of PULP commentaries on African human rights law under the series title PULP Commentaries on African human rights law Since its adoption on 11 July 2003 the Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa the Maputo Protocol has become a landmark on the African human rights landscape It has steadily gained prominence as a trail blazing instrument responsive to the diverse realities of women on the African continent This comprehensive Commentary on the Maputo Protocol the first of its kind provides systematic analysis of each article of the Protocol delving into the drafting history and elaborating on relevant key concepts and normative standards This Commentary aims to be a one stop shop for anyone interested in the Maputo Protocol such as researchers teachers students practitioners policymakers and activists

The Kurdish Movement in Turkey Elsa Tulin Sen,2025-08-21 This book examines the Kurdish movement in the context of total social movement theory First tracing its origins as a conventionally nationalist movement Elsa Sen draws upon Alan Touraine s concept of a total social movement to argue that from 2000 to 2015 the Kurds in Turkey pursued a policy of engaging in a peace process channeling energy into civil society activism and electoral campaigns and promoting an inclusive understanding of national identity for all the components of Turkish society not just the Kurds in a hypothetically fully functioning democracy Both theoretically informed and drawing upon empirical research in the form of interviews with Kurdish and Turkish activists non activists and political representatives the book provides a new perspective on contemporary Kurdish politics as oscillating between nationalist and social movement paradigms with the recent decline of the latter due to the resumption of military action by the Turkish state and the Kurdistan Workers Party after 2015
