Larry Watts and Deborah D E E P Mouton From the introduction by Gwendolyn Zepeda In a 2004 essay Hunter S Thompson described Houston as a cruel crazy town on a filthy river in East Texas with no zoning laws and a culture of sex money and violence It s a shabby sprawling metropolis ruled by brazen women crooked cops and super rich pansexual cowboys who live by the code of the West which can mean just about anything you need it to mean in a pinch For what it s worth that quote is now posted on a banner somewhere downtown and regularly gleefully repeated by our local feature writers Houston is a port city on top of a swamp and yes it has no zoning laws And that means it s culturally diverse internally incongruous and ever changing At any intersection here I might look out my car window and see a horse idly munching St Augustine grass And within spitting distance of that horse I might see a spa that s an obvious brothel a house turned drug den or a swiftly rising bayou that might overtake a car if the rain doesn t let up Overall this collection represents the very worst our city has to offer for residents and visitors alike But it also presents some of our best voices veteran and emerging to any reader lucky enough to pick up this book
