Oil Wealth and Insurgency in Nigeria Omolade Adunbi,2015-07-29 Omolade Adunbi investigates the myths behind competing claims to oil wealth in Nigeria s Niger Delta Looking at ownership of natural resources oil extraction practices government control over oil resources and discourse about oil Adunbi shows how symbolic claims have created an oil citizenship He explores the ways NGOs militant groups and community organizers invoke an ancestral promise to defend land disputes justify disruptive actions or organize against oil corporations Policies to control the abundant resources have increased contestations over wealth transformed the relationship of people to their environment and produced unique forms of power governance and belonging      The Good Holiday João Afonso Baptista, 2017-05-01 Drawing on ethnographic research in the village of Canhane which is host to the first community tourism project in Mozambique The Good Holiday explores the confluence of two powerful industries tourism and development and explains when how and why tourism becomes development and development tourism The volume further explores the social and material consequences of this merging presenting the confluence of tourism and development as a major vehicle for the exercise of ethics and non state governance in contemporary life      Pedestrian Collisions Christopher Armstrong, 2018-11-02 Collision Reconstruction Methodologies Volume 10B The last ten years have seen explosive growth in the technology available to the collision analyst changing the way reconstruction is practiced in fundamental ways The greatest technological advances for the crash reconstruction community have come in the realms of photogrammetry and digital media analysis The widespread use of scanning technology has facilitated the implementation of powerful new tools to digitize forensic data create 3D models and visualize and analyze crash vehicles and environments The introduction of unmanned aerial systems and standardization of crash data recorders to the crash reconstruction community have enhanced the ability of a crash analyst to visualize and model the components of a crash reconstruction Because of the technological changes occurring in the industry many SAE papers have been written to address the validation and use of new tools for collision reconstruction Collision Reconstruction Methodologies Volumes 1-12 bring together seminal SAE technical papers surrounding advancements in the crash reconstruction field Topics featured in the series include Night Vision Study and Photogrammetry Vehicle Event Data Recorders Motorcycle Heavy Vehicle Bicycle and Pedestrian Accident Reconstruction The goal is to provide the latest technologies and methodologies being introduced into collision reconstruction appealing to crash analysts consultants and safety engineers alike      The Northern Ireland Troubles Aaron Edwards, 2014-06-06 The British campaign in Northern Ireland remains one of the most controversial actions in recent history This new book by Aaron Edwards considers the strategic operational and tactical aspects of what become the longest ever campaign embarked upon by British troops The 38 year campaign codenamed Operation Banner went through a number of phases It began as a peacekeeping operation morphed into a counter insurgency operation and ending as a policing and counter terrorism force Banner was massive in scale No less than 10 000 troops were on active service throughout the campaign and at one point as many as 30 000 men and women were deployed on Ulster's streets Drawing on extensive new research this book presents an authoritative introduction to the Troubles providing a strategic analysis of the successes and failures of the campaign      Informal Public Transport in Practice Melekidzedek Khayesi, Fredrick Muyia Nafukho, 2016-03-03 Transport discourse often concentrates on what is missing from transport policy and practice in developing countries vis vis high income countries rather than articulating local creativity in responding to transport needs as revealed in informal public transport modes such as matatu motorcycle bicycle and animal transport This book helps to correct some of the tendency of inadequate contextualization of knowledge technology and practice learning and transfer from one setting to another in transport and other development programmes While countries such as Kenya have ambitions to develop their transport systems to fit into the globalized transport system they also need to plan transport for ordinary life in both urban and rural areas The matatu service provided by privately owned transport carriers can be seen as a mirror of the life of Kenya revealing how indigenous African entrepreneurship and capitalism straddles various economic political and social systems This book offers a phenomenological and situated analysis of the matatu entrepreneurship in the political economy of Kenya and its embeddedness in society By adopting a social science approach this book highlights a number of political social and practical issues to demonstrate the matatu is not a decontextualized disembodied and lifeless piece of moving metal carrying people and goods but rather part of a self organizing industry with its own logic of practice This book is dedicated to Ajanga Khayesi Kenya Gazette,1996-10-04 The Kenya Gazette is an official publication of the government of the Republic of Kenya It contains notices of new legislation notices required to be published by law or policy as well as other announcements that are published for general public information It is published every week usually on Friday with occasional releases of special or supplementary editions within the week М-Хобби No2 (224) 2020,2022-02-14 1993 12 Lockheed Electra E 10 S 14 1 Automotive Industrialisation Kaoru Natsuda,John Thoburn,2020-10-14 This book looks at the industrial policies of Southeast Asian economies in their motor vehicle industries from early import substitution to policy making under the more liberalised WTO policy regime The book examines how inward automotive investment especially from Japan has been affected by policies and how such investment has promoted industrial development in the late industrialising economies within ASEAN Association of Southeast Asian Nations It provides insights into the automotive industry of Southeast Asia in terms of production volumes sales volumes market structure and trade Through country case studies the book is a useful reference and illustrates how industrial policies in Southeast Asia have affected the spread of automotive development in the region It will appeal to policy makers and researchers interested in the automobile industry industrial policies in the industry and the spread of development from foreign investors to local firms
