News Talk Colleen Cotter, 2010-02-11 Written by a former news reporter and editor News Talk gives us an insider's view of the media showing how journalists select and construct their news stories. Colleen Cotter goes behind the scenes revealing how language is chosen and shaped by news staff into the stories we read and hear. Tracing news stories from start to finish she shows how the actions of journalists and editors and the limitations of news writing formulas may distort a story that was prepared with the most determined effort to be fair and accurate. Using insights from both linguistics and journalism News Talk is a remarkable picture of a hidden world and its working practices on both sides of the Atlantic. It will interest those involved in language study, media and communication studies and those who want to understand how media shape our language and our view of the world.

The Routledge Companion to American Journalism History Melita M. Garza, Michael Fuhlhage, Tracy Lucht, 2023-09-20 The Routledge Companion to American Journalism History revisits media history across forms, formats and multiple fault lines including gender, ethnicity, race and citizenship status. Original contributions highlight areas of journalism history in desperate need of further treatment with a special focus on diversity, equity and accountability. Sections cover the early origins and development of journalism in the United States, pivotal moments and personalities in various strands of journalism, underrepresented groups and formats in journalism history and key issues in doing journalism history. Authors aim to fill in the gaps left by traditional historical narratives by examining overlooked subjects such as labor reporting and overdue theoretical perspectives such as intersectionality. Collectively the voices in this book offer a more inclusive paradigm for the field. Written by a range of recognized journalism scholars both well established and emerging this collection offers a thought provoking starting point for researchers and advanced students seeking a critical understanding of American journalism history as conceived in the current era.
