Nfasas Applications 2015:

Social Justice and Education in the 21st Century Willie Pearson Jr., Vijay Reddy, 2021-04-10 The world is not an equal place There are high and low income countries and high and low income households For each group there are differential educational opportunities leading to differential educational outcomes and differential labor market opportunities This pattern often reproduces the privileges and inequalities of groups in a society This book explores this differentiation in education from a social justice lens Comparing the United States and South Africa this book analyzes each country s developmental thinking on education from human capital and human rights approaches in both primary and higher education The enclosed contributions draw from different disciplines including legal studies sociology psychology computer science and public policy

Accessing Post-School Studies Venicia McGhie & Madge du Preez, 2017-12-01 Accessing Post School Studies A student s GPS to successful learning makes a valuable contribution to often problematic and pertinent South African higher education issues such as student access and success student learning student support and student engagement In this regard the authors draw on the works of higher education theorists such as Kuh Tinto Marton and S lj The book is primarily a helpful resource for South African learners in school students at universities life orientation teachers as well as parents of prospective university students It will especially assist students to adapt to the university environment Prof Victor N Teise Sol Plaatje University Kimberley South Africa

Higher Education Pathways Paul Ashwin, M. Case, 2018-12-13 In what ways does access to undergraduate education have a transformative impact on people and societies What conditions are required for this impact to occur What are the pathways from an undergraduate education to the public good including inclusive economic development These questions have particular resonance in the South African higher education context which is attempting to tackle the challenges of widening access and improving completion rates in a system in which the segregations of the apartheid years are still apparent Higher education is recognised in core legislation as having a distinctive and crucial role in building post apartheid society Undergraduate education is seen as central to addressing skills shortages in South Africa It is also seen to yield significant social returns including a consistent positive impact on societal institutions and the development of a range of capabilities that have public as well as private benefits This book offers comprehensive contemporary evidence that allows for a fresh engagement with these pressing issues

Global Development of the Community College Model Carmen L. McCrink, Heidi Whitford, Natasha C. Stubbs, 2017-03-13 While the community college is a longstanding institutional type within the U S the success of this model has recently garnered international attention As countries outside the U S grapple with issues regarding access and affordability of higher education opportunity the concept of the community college has gained traction This issue explores The global expansion and development of the community college model in various countries and regions around the world Insights into the establishment and sustainability of these institutions in other countries through research and analysis and Case studies that voices the book proposes for policy and practice a set of contextual higher education capability domains and corresponding functionings orientated to more justice and more equality for each person to have the opportunities to be and to do what they have reason to value The book concludes that sufficient material resources are necessary to get into university and flourish while there the benefits of a university education should be rich and multi dimensional so that they can result in functionings in all areas of life as well as work and future study the inequalities and exclusion of the labour market and pathways to further study must be addressed by wider economic and social policies for inclusive learning outcomes to be meaningful and that universities ought to be doing more to enable black working class students to participate and succeed Low Income Students Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa makes an original contribution to capability scholarship conceptually in theorising a South based multi dimensional student well being higher education matrix and a rich reconceptualisation of learning outcomes as well as empirically by conducting rigorous longitudinal in depth mixed methods research on students lives and experiences in higher education in South Africa The audience for the book includes higher education researchers international capability scholars practitioners and policy makers Transforming

Transformation in Research and Teaching at South African Universities Rob Pattman, Ronelle Carolissen, 2018-12-21

What is transformation in contemporary South African higher education How can it be facilitated through research and pedagogic practices These questions are addressed in this edited collection by established academics and emerging research students from nine South African universities The chapters give us access to students worlds how they construct experience and navigate their complex spheres on and off campus By engaging with students as knowledge producers we transform popular ways of thinking about race gender class sexuality disability and age as singular and natural markers of difference and diversity Rather than taking diversity as fixed and rooted in nature we explore how diversity is imagined and lived in particular contexts on and off campus Shaping the World of Change, 2024-06-03 This book sets out the theme of a world that is changing rapidly and higher education being an important agent in shaping that change through knowledge generation transfer and innovation The chapters in this book focus on this shaping role of higher education along a number of key areas governance sustainability teaching and learning student agency quality and internationalization From these different topics this volume presents ways in which higher education helps dealing with and shaping the educational and societal changes that we are facing in the aftermath of the pandemic and challenges that we are expecting in the near future Contributors are Victor M H Borden Bruno Broucker Edel Cassar B rbara Coelho Gabriel Cindy Cogswell Julia Draghi Brigitte Ecker P nar Eldemir Klaus Feldmann Cl udia Figueiredo Anne Gannon Jussi Kivist Manja Klemen i Theodor Leiber Nandarani Maistry Sara Moreno Pires Takalani Muloiwa Klenam Darlington Mutakwa Erna Nairz Wirth Ruaidhri Neavyn Jessica Nooij Mark O Hara Beate Pawle Alexandra Polido Maria P schl Silke Preymann Verena R gent Lotte Scheeren Kateryna Suprun Robertt Valente Floris J N van Berckel Smit Annemieke van der Horst and Sabine Weiss Transforming Universities in South Africa ,2020-08-31 The idea of transformation in higher education underpins all policy documents academic literature and on going debates in South Africa Transforming Universities in South Africa Pathways to Higher Education Reform responds to the pressing need to comprehensively review the post apartheid experience and assess where South Africa s higher education stands across the continent and globally particularly within the country s efforts to overcome decades of socio economic imbalances It addresses the question of whether South Africa s transformation strategy from apartheid to democracy was simply a symbolic new flag raising and new anthem singing exercise reflecting a transition akin to those limited decolonization projects elsewhere in the world or whether something more fundamental was possible and was achieved with political and policy implications for other countries in Africa and globally This volume s ultimate purpose is to provide a basis for imagining new futures in which South Africa higher education in the context of Africa and the global world takes centre stage

Business Research Pieter W. Buys,Merwe Oberholzer,2023-03-14 This book focuses on research methodologies that apply to business research particularly for researchers and managers embarking thereon to support managerial decision making in the industry In doing so the book s objective is to guide business researchers in identifying defining and applying rigorous academic methodologies that will enable them to formulate design and execute effective research that answers their specific management problems Such guidance can empower organizational managers to understand that business research can contribute to practical solutions to actual problems experienced in the industry In addition by emphasizing the integrative nature between 1 academic research and 2 experienced industry problems it becomes possible to foster an awareness of such research s potential impact on organizational performance management sustainability and resilience With that attention is given to narrowing the gap between theory and practice which requires that fundamentals of scientific research be adhered to while maintaining the delicate balance between a practice friendly guide to pragmatically sound and academically rigorous business research

Sustainable Management Development in Africa Hamid Kazeroony,2016-04-14 Sustainable Management Development in Africa examines how African management and business scholarship can serve African and multinational management and organizations operating in Africa In a broader sense this book within an African context explores how human capital and intellectual capabilities can be organized at the higher education level describes the cultural social and political influencers impacting management and organization helps conceptualize African management theories to address organizational effectiveness addresses the current management and organizational practices in Africa in identifying challenges and provides guidance for more effective management and organizational operation Aimed at researchers academics and advanced students alike this book lays the groundwork for the application of uniquely African theoretical and practical perspectives for sustainable management and organizational operation as explained from a contemporary African point of view In addition and most important this book contains a uniquely African content that allows for developing new theories and examining new ways of doing business thus reaffirming

the rise of African scholarship in the fields of management organization and business Youth In South Africa Ariane De Lannoy, Malose Langa, 2021-05-05 South Africa is characterised by a youthful population and the challenges and possibilities that characterise the young generation are both warning signs and beacons of hope for a nation founded on social justice Youth in South Africa Agency in visibility and national development takes stock of the nation's development as it affects young people Authors offer both personal and professional insights into the ways in which the youth navigate their own pathways to adulthood These include formal and informal engagements with politics as well as protest unemployment entrepreneurship education religion experiences with sexuality and violence and a multitude of other life experiences Contributors paint a picture of the initiative agency and resilience of the youth as well as the challenges before them Authors also identify the state of wait-hood faced by those unable to make the transition out of youth into full adulthood as a result of their socio-economic circumstances and political context By engaging these experiences and insights and primarily informed by the inputs of young people the authors highlight the limitations of existing youth policies and frameworks The case is made for policy instruments to be informed by the lived experiences of the youth as they navigate a complex macrosocial environment and by the messages the youth communicate about the limitations of current approaches Online Teaching and Learning in Higher Education Mariam Akinlolu, Manyane Makua, Nomalungelo Ngubane, 2024-06-03 This edited volume explores current practices in African higher education during and post the global pandemic It fills a gap in the existing literature by focusing on student engagement and online learning in South Africa and examines how pandemic restrictions amplified pre-existing inequalities within the higher education sector The book is divided into 3 sections The first section discusses various methods of instruction and the use of online tools for facilitating learning succeeded by a section focusing on the resource implications of moving to online learning platforms from a social justice perspective and finally the last section considers issues and concerns about online assessments and quality assurance Drawing on lessons from the experiences of South African educators and students during the pandemic this book provides a knowledge base essential for the effective management of online teaching and learning in Africa It is intended for academic stakeholders to develop and engender an improved higher education climate Race for Education Mark Hunter, 2019-01-24 Following the end of apartheid in 1994 the ANC government placed education at the centre of its plans to build a nonracial and more equitable society Yet by the 2010s a wave of student protests voiced demands for decolonised and affordable education By following families and schools in Durban for nearly a decade Mark Hunter sheds new light on South Africa's political transition and the global phenomenon of education marketisation He rejects simple descriptions of the country's move from race to class apartheid and reveals how white phenotypic traits like skin colour retain value in the schooling system even as the multiracial middle class embraces prestigious linguistic and embodied practices the book calls white tone By illuminating the actions and choices of both white and black parents Hunter provides a unique view on race class and gender in a country

emerging from a notorious system of institutionalised racism

Handbook of Comparative Higher Education Law

Charles J. Russo, 2013-07-11 The Handbook of Comparative Higher Education Law addresses legal issues from institutions of higher learning in seventeen countries on all six inhabited continents in a reader friendly manner All chapters follow the same outline on institutional issues faculty rights student rights and emerging issues so that similarities and differences can be compared An introductory chapter provides an overview on the legal status of higher education as selected in various international covenants In addition a concluding chapter draws the themes addressed throughout the book together and centers on the concept of best practice management This book serves as valuable resource for educational practitioners in higher education insofar as it provides them with an enhanced awareness of strategies that are being used to manage problems commonly faced in multiple educational settings

Women, Economic Development, and Higher Education* Diane

E. Eynon, 2017-06-19 This book is a multi disciplinary exploration of the intersection relationship and connection between higher education economic development and gender in post Apartheid South Africa In just twenty years South Africa has rewritten its constitution restructured its macroeconomic growth and development policies restructured its higher education system and made a commitment to provide opportunity for all its citizens specifically those who have historically been marginalized women and blacks Eynon weaves together these unique perspectives to illustrate how these multiple domains map onto women and the critical role they play in the present and future of the country Gender equality and women s empowerment and education were considered key drivers to South Africa s transformation

Access to Higher Education

Graeme Atherton, 2017-09-16 This book is the first systematic attempt to examine one of the biggest challenges facing universities and society in the 21st century how do we create opportunities to allow people from all social backgrounds to benefit from higher education It examines how policymakers higher education institutions and civil society organisations are meeting this challenge across the globe Each chapter focuses on one of 12 countries including the economically powerful US and Germany developing nations from Africa and South America and the new higher education superpowers of China and India Access to Higher Education shows that across these different nations inequalities in higher education participation are common but their nature differs It argues for a new nationhood based approach to understanding why these differences exist
