Ngos A New History Of Transnational Civil Society:

NGOs Thomas Richard Davies, 2014 In the first historical account of international NGOs from the French Revolution to the present Thomas Davies places the contemporary debate on transnational civil society in context In contrast to the conventional wisdom which sees transnational civil society as a recent development taking place along a linear trajectory he explores the long history of international NGOs in terms of a cyclical process characterized by three major waves the era to 1914 the inter war years and the period since the Second World War The breadth of transnational civil society activities explored is unprecedented in its diversity from business associations to humanitarian organizations peace groups to socialist movements feminist organizations to pan nationalist groups The geographical scope covered is also extensive and the analysis is richly supported with reference to a diverse array of previously unexplored sources By revealing the role of civil society rather than governmental actors in the major transformations of the past two and a half centuries this book is for anyone interested in obtaining a new perspective on world history The analysis concludes in the second decade of the twenty first century providing insights into the trajectory of transnational civil society in the post 9 11 and post financial crisis eras

NGOs Davies, Thomas Richard Davies, 2014 By providing the first wide ranging history of international non governmental organizations NGOs from the late eighteenth century through to the twenty first century this book sheds critical new light on globalization The book s unprecedented coverage spans business development educational environmentalist health human rights humanitarian labour peace professional religious women s and youth associations amongst many others

Transnational Civil Society in Asia Simon Avenell, Akihiro Ogawa, 2021-07-22 This edited volume addresses how transnational interactions among civil society actors in Asia and its sub regions are helping to strengthen common democratic values and transform dominant processes of policymaking and corporate capitalism in the region The contributors conceive of transnational civil society networks as constructive vehicles for both informing and persuading governments and businesses to adopt modify or abandon certain policies or positions This volume investigates the role of such networks through a range of interdisciplinary approaches bringing together case studies on Asian transnationalism from South Southeast and Northeast Asia across four key themes local transformations and connections diaspora politics cross regional initiatives and networks and global actors and influences Chapters demonstrate how transnational civil society is connecting people in local communities across Asia in parallel to ongoing tensions between nation states and civil society By highlighting the grassroots regionalization emerging from ever intensifying information exchange between civil society actors across borders as well as concrete transnational initiatives uniting actors across Asia the volume advances the intellectual mandate of redefining Asia as a dynamic and interconnected formation Transnational Civil Society in Asia will appeal to students and scholars of international relations politics and Asian studies more broadly

Routledge Handbook of NGOs and International Relations Thomas Davies, 2019-04-09 Offering insights from pioneering new perspectives in

Civil Society: Concepts, Challenges, Contexts

Michael Hoelscher, Regina A. List, Alexander Ruser, Stefan Toepler, 2022-05-10 This volume is a collection of original essays prepared by colleagues collaborators and former students on the occasion of Helmut K Anheier's 65th birthday and retirement from the University of Heidelberg An internationally recognized pioneer of nonprofit and civil society studies Anheier focused his work on providing clarity around 1 civil society local and global observing its origins and trajectory and developing theories to explain it 2 the nonprofit sector and institutions within and extending from it including nonprofit organizations philanthropy and social investment and 3 culture as it relates to democracy and back to civil society The essays in this volume refer to these concepts and position them in the context of developments over the last two to three decades The volume is arranged in three sections The first section comprises essays that elucidate concepts and probe theories in the field The second section presents chapters discussing current global challenges and trends in the focal areas The third and final section then comprises country and regional case studies illustrating important aspects of the global challenges or theoretical issues of the two preceding sections A fascinating and up to date overview of key issues and trends in civil society and nonprofit research by an international collection of eminent scholars in these fields this book will be attractive to civil society and nonprofit sector researchers as well as a broader academic community of political scientists sociologists economists and cultural experts

The NGO Moment Kevin O'Sullivan, 2021-10-14 This book is a study of compassion as a global project from Biafra to Live Aid Kevin O'Sullivan explains how and why NGOs became the primary conduits of popular concern for the global poor between the late 1960s and the mid 1980s and shows how this shaped the West's relationship with the post colonial world Drawing on case studies from Britain Canada and Ireland as well as archival material from governments and international organisations he sheds new light on how the legacies of empire were re packaged and re purposed for the post colonial era and how a liberal definition of benevolence rooted in charity justice development and rights became the dominant expression of solidarity with the Third World In doing so the book provides a unique insight into the social cultural and ideological foundations of global civil society It reveals why this period provided such fertile ground for the emergence of NGOs and offers a fresh interpretation of how individuals in the West encountered the outside world

The Globalization of World Politics John Baylis, Steve Smith, Patricia Owens, 2017 This title provides an introduction to international relations IR supporting over 300 000 students taking their first steps in IR and beyond Visual Securitization Alice Massari, 2021-05-18 This open access book offers an innovative account of how relief organizations visual depiction of Syrian displacement contributes to reproduce and reinforce a securitized account of refugees Through visual analysis the book demonstrates how the securitization process takes place in three different ways First of all even if marginally it occurs through the reproduction of mainstream media and political accounts that have depicted refugees in terms of threats Secondly and more consistently through a representation of Syrian displaced people that despite the undeniable innovative aesthetic patterns focusing on dignity and empowerment continue to reinforce a visual narrative around refugees in terms of victimhood and passivity The reproduction of a securitized account takes also place through the dialectic between what is made visible in the pictures and what is not At the same time the book identifies visual glimmers and minor displacements in the humanitarian discourse that have the potentiality to produce alternative discourses on refugees and displacement beyond the mainstream securitized ones By showing how relief organizations visual representation contributes to the securitization of the refugee issue this book provides a great resource to students and academics in migration visuality humanitarianism and securitization as well as social scientists and policy makers Activism across Borders since 1870 Daniel

Laqua, 2023-08-10 From the Occupy protests to the Black Lives Matter movement and school strikes for climate action the twenty first century has been rife with activism Although very different from one another each of these movements has created alliances across borders with activists stressing that their concerns are not confined to individual nation states In this book Daniel Laqua shows that global efforts of this kind are not a recent phenomenon and that as long as there have been borders activists have sought to cross them Activism Across Borders since 1870 explores how individuals groups and organisations have fostered bonds in their quest for political and social change and considers the impact of national and ideological boundaries on their efforts Focusing on Europe but with a global outlook the book acknowledges the importance of imperial and postcolonial settings for groups and individuals that expressed far reaching ambitions From feminism and socialism to anti war campaigns and green politics this book approaches transnational activism with an emphasis on four features connectedness ambivalence transience and marginality In doing so it demonstrates the intertwined nature of different movements problematizes transnational action discusses the temporary nature of some alliances and shows how transnationalism has been used by those marginalized at the national level With a broad chronological perspective and thematic chapters it provides historical context clarifies terms and concepts and offers an alternative history of modern Europe through the lens of activists movements and campaigns The Instigatory Theory of NGO Communication

Evandro Oliveira,2019-05-31 By understanding the ontogenesis of NGOs as civil society organizations from a historical anthropological communicational sociological economical and managerial perspective Evandro Oliveira outlines the Instigatory Theory of NGO Communication ITNC This proposes the ontological principles an applied conceptual model and a cybernetic operational model for understanding and managing communication at NGOs Those models were tested using a mixed method research design NGOs, Knowledge Production and Global Humanist Advocacy Alistair

Markland,2020-03-02 NGOs Knowledge Production and Global Humanist Advocacy is an empirically and theoretically rich account of how international non governmental organisations produce knowledge of and formulate understandings about the world around them The author applies critical and sociological perspectives to analyse the social and political limits of knowledge generated in support of global advocacy efforts aimed at enhancing human rights and preventing violent conflicts It is found that despite their transnational networks and claims to humanist universality the proximity of global advocates to Western power structures and elite social spaces delimits their worldviews and curtails the potential for radical departures from mainstream political thinking This book will be of interest to scholars and students of international relations human rights the sociology of knowledge peace and conflict studies and critical security studies Elgar Encyclopedia of Development Matthew Clarke,Xinyu (Andy) Zhao,2023-10-06 The Elgar Encyclopedia of Development is a ground breaking resource that provides a starting point for those wishing to grasp how and why development occurs while also providing further expansion appropriate for more experienced academics International Organizations Revisited Dennis

Dijkzeul,Dirk Salomons,2021-08-13 Despite the sustained scholarly attention that the United Nations and international NGOs have received in the twenty first century they still remain under researched from a management studies perspective This volume brings together rich analyses of these organizations functioning arguing that they are best understood as intermediaries between international decision making and funding bodies in the developed world and initiatives that take place on the ground primarily in the Global South Based on current management research this follow up to Rethinking International Organizations Berghahn 2002 provides a wealth of both empirical and theoretical insights along with practical recommendations how these organizations can function more effectively The Interwar World Andrew Denning,Heidi J.S. Tworek,2023-08-29 The Interwar World collects an international group of over 50 contributors to discuss analyze and interpret this crucial period in twentieth century history A comprehensive understanding of the interwar era has been limited by Euro American approaches and strict adherence to the temporal limits of the world wars The volume s contributors challenge the era s accepted temporal and geographic framings by privileging global processes and interactions Each contribution takes a global thematic approach integrating world regions into a shared narrative Three central questions frame the chapters First when was the interwar Viewed globally the years 1918 and 1939 are arbitrary limits and the volume explicitly engages with the artificiality of the temporal framework while closely examining the specific dynamics of the 1920s and 1930s Second where was the interwar Contributors use global history methodologies and training in varied world regions to decenter Euro American frameworks engaging directly with the usefulness of the interwar as both an era and an analytical category Third how global was the interwar Authors trace accelerating connections in areas such as public health and mass culture counterbalanced by processes of economic protectionism exclusive nationalism and limits to migration By approaching the era thematically the volume disaggregates and interrogates the meaning of the global in this era As a comprehensive guide this volume offers overviews of key themes of the interwar period for undergraduates while offering up to date historiographical insights for postgraduates and scholars interested in this pivotal period in global history

Development NGOs and Languages Hilary Footitt, Angela M. Crack, Wine Tisseur, 2020-08-12 This book addresses for the first time the question of how development NGOs attempt to listen to communities in linguistically diverse environments NGOs are under increasing pressure to demonstrate that they listen to the people and communities that they are trying to serve but this can be an immensely challenging task where there are significant language and cultural differences However until now there has been no systematic study of the role of foreign languages in development work The authors present findings based on interviews with a wide range of NGO staff and government officials NGO archives and observations of NGO community interaction in country case studies They suggest ways in which NGOs can reform their language policies to listen to the recipients of aid more effectively International Organizations and Global Civil Society Daniel Laqua, Wouter Van Acker, Christophe Verbruggen, 2019-03-21 The Union of International Associations UIA was founded in 1910 aiming to coordinate the relations and interests of international organizations across the world Its long history makes it a prism through which to study the field of international organizations and its dynamics Bringing together experts from fields including history political science and international relations architecture historical sociology digital humanities and information studies International Organizations and Global Civil Society is the first scholarly book to cover both the UIA s early years and its more recent past Key issues explored include the UIA s importance for the field of scientific internationalism the relations between the UIA and other international organizations and the changing position of the UIA when facing geopolitical challenges such as totalitarianism the World Wars and the Cold War This important book addresses a number of current scholarly concerns the concept of global civil society the development of international relations as a field of study the investigation of transnational factors in modern and contemporary history and the tracing of forerunners to the information society International Organizations Kelly-Kate S. Pease, Dani Belo, 2025-07-21 Drawing on mainstream and critical theoretical approaches International Organizations offers a comprehensive examination of the role of international organizations in world politics This text details the types and activities of international organizations and provides students with the conceptual tools needed to evaluate their effectiveness Surveying key issue areas including security trade development the environment and human rights International Organizations looks at global governance from a broad range of perspectives New to the Seventh Edition Inclusion of narratives to complement theoretical approaches to show how facts are used to frame reality and interpret world events Narratives are used to advocate and build support for particular policies and strategies Expanded analysis of International Security New chapter on Global Public Health with systematic treatment of the COVID 19 pandemic and the role of international organizations in identifying and managing the pandemic New sections on global finance and international humanitarian law Updated case studies on Iran and Ukraine Discussion questions to help students reflect on each chapter s content

From Charity to Justice Vincent Fang, 2021-05-03 This book focuses on the ethical demands of extreme poverty and develops a political theory of practical change Welding together political realism and moral aspirations it argues that a re imagined form of development NGO can help the global North break free from the dominant and persistent charity paradigm and drift towards a justice based understanding of extreme poverty It offers an original explanation of why the charity paradigm persists and why the justice not charity messages from development NGOs have changed few minds The author argues that anyone concerned with a paradigm shift from charity to justice need to radically rethink the problem of political communication who should communicate what messages about extreme poverty in what ways Based on a rational choice critique of the competitive development NGO sector the author calls for sector wide reform and the emergence of a new political agent the Avant garde NGO which transcends the charity frame that NGOs currently find themselves locked in Further inspired by literary theory and social psychology he offers a fresh account of how the Avant garde NGO could through reflective public engagement induce attitude change and lead genuine social and political reform

The Role of Multinational Enterprises in Supporting the United Nations' SDGs McIntyre, John R., Ivanaj, Silvester, Ivanaj, Vera, 2022-07-08 The Role of Multinational Enterprises in Supporting the United Nations SDGs is an exploration of the place of the private sector in implementing select Sustainable Development Goals Beyond the abundant literature published by the United Nations and journal articles there are few book length treatments of the unique role that multinationals play as facilitators of goal implementation and agents of change This volume aims to stimulate debate and research on MNEs best practices fleshing out many of the seventeen goals through the lens of corporate strategic choices

Handbook of Research on NGOs Aynsley Kellow, Hannah Murphy-Gregory, 2018-09-28 This volume provides a critical overview of research on Non governmental Organisations NGOs While it notes that the definition of NGOs is contested and can include both business and national groups it focuses primarily on international NGOs engaged with human rights social and environmental concerns and aid and development issues With contributions by Peter Willetts Tom Davies Bob Reinalda and other leading scholars it provides a series of critical essays on both general aspects of NGOs and significant issues of particular concern
