Playstation Vita Update 336:

The Vision of William Concerning Piers Plowman William Langland, 1869 Goscelin of Saint-Bertin: The Hagiography of the Female Saints of Ely Rosalind C. Love, 2004-02-05 Goscelin monk of Saint Bertin who came to England in the early 1060s was one of the most prolific hagiographers of the Anglo Saxon saints William of Malmesbury described him as second to none since Bede in the celebration of the English saints Part of his career was spent in wandering exile and one of the places Goscelin stayed briefly was Ely who twelfth century house history portrays him working late at night on verses commemorating Ely's patroness St thelfryth By the late tenth century the cult of thelfryth the seventh century virgin queen whose two unconsummated marriages were recounted in Bede's Historia Ecclesiastica had been combined with that of her sister Seaxburh and of another supposed sister Wihtburh whose relics were translated from East Dereham in Norfolk to Ely in 974 To this group were added Seaxburh's daughter Eormenhild and Eormenhild's daughter Wrburh A collection of the Lives of these female saints some probably the work of Goscelin is preserved in three twelfth century Ely manuscripts Taken together these texts offer a fascinating insight into Ely's view of the women venerated by the community and of its own past history The Alexandrian Riots of 38 C.E. and the Persecution of the Jews Sandra Gambetti, 2009 Scholars have read the Alexandrian riots of 38 CE according to intertwined dichotomies The Alexandrian Jews fought to keep their citizenship or to acquire it they evaded the payment of the poll tax or prevented any attempts to impose it on them they safeguarded their identity against the Greeks or against the Egyptians Avoiding that pattern and building on the historical reconstruction of the experience of the Alexandrian Jewish community under the Ptolemies this work submits that the riots were the legal and political consequence of an imperial adjudication against the Jews Most of the Jews lost their residence never to recover it again The Roman emperor the Roman prefect of Egypt and the Alexandrian citizenry all shared responsibilities according to their respective and expected roles Studies in Dante Edward Moore, 1969-02 Studies in Dante. First Series Edward Moore, 1903 Studies in Dante Moore, 1903 Studies in Dante Edward Moore, 1903 Ps-Athenagoras De Resurrectione Nikolai Kiel, 2015-11-02 The authorship of De Resurrectione traditionally ascribed to the apologist Athenagoras and its dating are controversial to this day Nikolai Kiel proves in this study that the resurrection treatise is pseudonymous By positioning the text within the intellectual historical context of early resurrection debates its origin can be dated to the first half of the 3rd century The discourse horizon of the discussed tractate has been determined more precisely by means of a reconstruction of the constituent opposing position Through his interpretative survey of De Resurrectione the author has advanced the study of apologetic literature from the early patristic Era Die Verfasserschaft der traditionell dem Apologeten Athenagoras zugeschriebenen Schrift De Resurrectione und ihre Datierung sind bis heute umstritten Nikolai Kiel weist in dieser Studie nach dass der Auferstehungstraktat ein Pseudonym darstellt Durch eine Verortung des Textes im ideengeschichtlichen Kontext der altkirchlichen Auferstehungsdebatten kann seine Entstehung auf die erste Hälfte des

dritten Jahrhunderts datiert werden Hierzu wird auch der Diskurshorizont des untersuchten Traktats mittels einer Rekonstruktion der in der Leugnung der Totenauf resurrection bestehenden gegnerischen Positionen her bestimmt Ausgehend von einem interpretierenden Durchgang durch De Resurrectione leistet der Verfasser einen wesentlichen Beitrag zur patristischen Forschung des apologetischen Zeitalters

The Arabs in Antiquity Jan Retso, 2013-07-04 The history of the Arabs in antiquity from their earliest appearance around 853 BC until the first century of Islam is described in this book It traces the mention of people called Arabs in all relevant ancient sources and suggests a new interpretation of their history It is suggested that the ancient Arabs were more a religious community than an ethnic group which would explain why the designation Arab could be easily adopted by the early Muslim tribes The Arabs of antiquity thus resemble the early Islamic Arabs more than is usually assumed both being united by common bonds of religious ideology and law

The Doctrine of Deification in the Greek Patristic Tradition Norman Russell, 2005-01-21 Deification in the Greek patristic tradition was the fulfilment of the destiny for which humanity was created not merely salvation from sin but entry into the fullness of the divine life of the Trinity This book the first on the subject for over sixty years traces the history of deification from its birth as a second century metaphor with biblical roots to its maturity as a doctrine central to the spiritual life of the Byzantine Church Drawing attention to the richness and diversity of the patristic approaches from Irenaeus to Maximus the Confessor Norman Russell offers a full discussion of the background and context of the doctrine at the same time highlighting its distinctively Christian character

Sacred Marriages Martti Nissinen, Risto Uro, 2008 The title of this volume Sacred Marriages consciously plays with the traditional concept of sacred marriage but the plural form sacred marriages gives the reader an idea that something more is at stake here than a monomaniacal idea of manifestations deriving from a single prototype Following the guidelines of one of the contributors Ruben Zimmermann the editors tentatively define sacred marriage as a real or symbolic union of two complementary entities imagined as gendered in a religious context Sacred marriages plural then refers to various expressions of this kind of union in different cultures that seek to overcome to cite Zimmermann again the great dualism of human and cosmic existence The subtitle indicates that the contributors are primarily interested in different aspects of the divine human sexual metaphor that is the imagining and reenactment of a gendered relationship between the human and divine worlds This metaphor which is essentially about relationship rather than sexual acts can find textual ritual mythical and social expressions in different times and places Indeed the sacred marriage ritual itself should be considered not a manifestation of the sacralized power of sexuality experienced in sexual intercourse but one way of objectifying the divine human sexual metaphor

The Sasanian World through Georgian Eyes Stephen H. Rapp Jr,2017-05-15

Georgian literary sources for Late Antiquity are commonly held to be later productions devoid of historical value As a result scholarship outside the Republic of Georgia has privileged Graeco Roman and even Armenian narratives However when investigated within the dual contexts of a regional literary canon and the active participation of Caucasias diverse peoples in the Iranian Commonwealth early Georgian texts emerge as a rich repository of late antique attitudes and outlooks Georgian hagiographical and historiographical compositions open a unique window onto a northern part of the Sasanian world that while sharing striking affinities with the Iranian heartland was home to vibrant cosmopolitan cultures that developed along their own trajectories In these sources precise and accurate information about the core of the Sasanian Empire and before it Parthia and Achaemenid Persia is sparse yet the thorough structuring of wider Caucasian society along Iranian and especially hybrid Iranic lines is altogether evident Scrutiny of these texts reveals inter alia that the Old Georgian language is saturated with words drawn from Parthian and Middle Persian a trait shared with Classical Armenian that Caucasian society like its Iranian counterpart was dominated by powerful aristocratic houses many of whose origins can be traced to Iran itself and that the conception of kingship in the eastern Georgian realm of Kartli Iberia even centuries after the royal familys Christianisation in the 320s and 330s was closely aligned with Arsacid and especially Sasanian models There is also a literary dimension to the Irano Caucasian nexus aspects of which this volume exposes for the first time The oldest surviving specimens of Georgian historiography exhibit intriguing parallels to the lost Sasanian Xwadaynamag The Book of Kings one of the precursors to Ferdowsis Shahnameh As tangible products of the dense cross cultural web drawing the re
