Locke,1979 The impact of civil service and affirmative action programs on minority employment in the law enforcement setting is addressed in this monograph Each stage of the federal government s program to insure equal employment opportunity from nondiscrimination through affirmative action has been accompanied by acrimonious public debate focusing particularly on affirmative action which is designed to develop guidelines timetables and other measurable indexes by which employers can be held accountable for their progress or lack of it in implementing national policy The principal burden of finding answers to the complex issues surrounding minority employment has fallen to the courts Numerous judicial decisions with enormous implications for police agencies have been translated into procedural regulations covering the measures techniques criteria and processes that may be used for employment decisions and employment selection Several employment practices which may create problems in the area of employment discrimination are included Whether due to enlightened police leadership community pressures political circumstances civil service intervention or a combination of all these factors the racial characteristics of American policing have begun to change substantially over the past decade Ten years ago approximately 4 percent of the sworn police personnel in the nation were racial minorities today that figure has risen to 10 percent Findings of the public service administration show that one of the most important factors in changing the nature and quality of policing is the courage and commitment of police leadership To the extent that increasing minority and female participation in the ranks of sworn police officers is a crucial part of this change process there is the added finding that such efforts are not enhanced by a reliance on the regulatory role of civil service Several suggestions for institutionalizing this change process are noted Criminal Justice India Series ,2002 Strategies for Improving Officer Recruitment in the San Diego Police Department Greg Ridgeway,2008 The San Diego Police Department SDPD has been operating below its authorized size in recent years To bridge its personnel gap the department needs to maximize its recruiting while minimizing officer attrition To accomplish this goal the department sought assistance from RAND to improve its recruiting efforts and suggest ways to improve the diversity of its recruits This monograph describes RAND s effort to assist SDPD s recruiting program The Police Chief ,1984 Theory of Public Administration Mr. Rohit Manglik,2023-10-23 In this book we will study about the evolution principles and functions of public administration in governance Public Sector Personnel Administration Mr. Rohit Manglik,2024-03-25 EduGorilla Publication is a trusted name in the education sector committed to empowering learners with high quality study materials and resources Specializing in competitive exams and academic support EduGorilla provides comprehensive and well structured content tailored to meet the needs of students across various streams and levels Criminal Procedure Wayne R.
