The Dancing Fox: A Sample Paper in APA (6th Edition) Style

Note: In APA style, center the following information in the middle of the page: title, your name, course title and section, the instructor's name, and the date. APA only requires the title, author's name, and institutional affiliation, but most CSP instructors ask for the date and course information too. Do not use contractions in formal papers—either in the title or the body of the paper ("do not" rather than "don't"). Titles should include no more than 12 words. The title uses upper and lowercase letters. Use double-spacing throughout the entire paper except with charts or tables. Do not use any extra spacing except if you use page breaks between chapters (for very long papers) and between the paper and the reference section. Use Times Roman, 12 point font. Do not use bold except for headings. Margins are set for one inch on top, bottom, and sides.

Note: This paper reflects the sixth edition of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association. (last updated 4-13-10)
