Fourth Generation Mobile Communication Peter Curwen, Jason Whalley, 2013-12-02 This book deals with the development of so called fourth generation mobile communications or 4G. It covers all aspects of the technology in a form comprehensible to the general reader: a history of its implementation on a worldwide basis and information on how it will be used to improve business transactions. It is up to date, comprehensive, and is based upon information acquired from well over one thousand individual sources. All of the data are set up in a manner that simplifies comparisons between countries and service providers. Based on the extensive analysis of the different contexts and progress of 4G technology, future prospects for high speed mobile communications are also presented.

Design, User Experience, and Usability: Web, Mobile, and Product Design Aaron Marcus, 2013-07-03 The four volume set LNCS 8012, 8013, 8014, and 8015 constitutes the proceedings of the Second International Conference on Design, User Experience, and Usability DUXU 2013 held as part of the 15th International Conference on Human Computer Interaction HCII 2013 held in Las Vegas, USA, in July 2013, jointly with 12 other thematically similar conferences. The total of 1666 papers and 303 posters presented at the HCII 2013 conferences was carefully reviewed and selected from 5210 submissions. These papers address the latest research and development efforts and highlight the human aspects of design and use of computing systems. The papers accepted for presentation thoroughly cover the entire field of Human Computer Interaction, addressing major advances in knowledge and effective use of computers in a variety of application areas. The total of 282 contributions included in the DUXU proceedings were carefully reviewed and selected for inclusion in this four volume set. The 83 papers included in this volume are organized in the following topical sections: DUXU in business and the enterprise; designing for the Web; experience, product design; information and knowledge; design and visualisation; and mobile applications and services.

Language Processing and Knowledge in the Web Iryna Gurevych, Chris Biemann, Torsten Zesch, 2013-09-13 This book constitutes the refereed conference proceedings of the 25th International Conference on Language Processing and Knowledge in the Web, GSCL 2013, held in Darmstadt, Germany, in September 2013. The 20 revised full papers were carefully selected from numerous submissions and cover topics on language processing and knowledge in the Web on several important dimensions, such as computational linguistics, language technology, and processing of unstructured textual content in the Web.

The Smartphone Elizabeth Woyke, 2011-05-10 A technology reporter's behind-the-scenes history of the device that has taken over our lives. How have smartphones shaped the way we socialize and interact? Who tracks our actions, our preferences, our movements as recorded by our smartphones? These are just some of the questions that Elizabeth Woyke, a journalist who has covered the industry for Bloomberg Businessweek, Forbes, and MIT Technology Review, addresses in this book. Including photos and an in-depth look at the early decades of mobile communication, The Smartphone offers not only a step-by-step account of how smartphones are designed and manufactured, but also a bold exploration of the darker side of this massive industry, including the exploitation of labor, the disposal of electronic waste and the underground networks that hack and smuggle smartphones Featuring interviews with key figures in the development of the smartphone and expert assessments of the industry's main players Apple Google Microsoft and Samsung The Smartphone is the perfect introduction to this most personal of gadgets Your smartphone will never look the same again The author does a good job explaining the relationships among the makers carriers and developers and she delivers an engrossing chapter on design trends Kirkus Reviews

Cellular Daniel D. Garcia-Swartz, Martin Campbell-Kelly, 2022-10-18 Tracks the evolution of the international cellular industry from the late 1970s to the present The development of the mobile phone industry into what we know today required remarkable cooperation between companies governments and industrial sectors Companies developing cellular infrastructure cellular devices cellular network services and eventually software and mobile semiconductors had to cooperate not simply compete with each other In this global history of the mobile phone industry Daniel D Garcia Swartz and Martin Campbell Kelly examine its development in the United States Europe Japan and several emerging economies including China and India They present the evolution of mobile phones from the perspective of vendors of telephone equipment and network operators users whose lives have been transformed by mobile phones and governments that have fostered specific mobile phone standards Cellular covers the technical aspects of the cellphone as well as its social and political impact Beginning with the 1980s the authors trace the development of closed proprietary and open available to all cellular standards the impact of network effects as cellular adoption increased major technological changes affecting mobile phone hardware and the role of national governments in shaping the industry The authors also consider the changing roles that cellular phones have played in the everyday lives of people around the world and the implications 5G technology may have for the future Finally they offer statistics on how quickly the cellular industry grew in different regions of the world and how firms competed in those various markets Cellular is published in the History of Computing Series This distinguished series has played a major role in defining scholarship in the history of computing Hallmarks of the series are its technical detail and interpretation of primary source materials
