Funeral Rites Reformation for Any African Ethnic Community Based on the Proposed New Funeral Practices for the Agikuyu Johnson Nganga Mbugua, 2016-06-17 This book has been written on the premise that the mode of coping with death of virtually all African ethnic communities has taken proportions and turns that are neither cultural scriptural nor necessary Current rites are complicated time consuming expensive and are leaving most families and their neighbors impoverished They have been extremely commercialized and a large number of Africans do not have resources to bury their dead the modern way Were the Agikuyu read Africans to curb numerous funeral demands which they deem necessary and customary when in actual fact they are not funerals for them would become cheaper faster and simpler would be decent enough for the dead would take care of those left behind and would be environmentally friendly How Africans in the Diaspora away from their ancestral homeland should cope with death is also addressed Also addressed is the issue of cremation It is shown that at the resurrection God will accord us new spiritual bodies which will have no bearing with the material substance of our earthly mortal bodies Together in Christ Form 1 , Translation of the Bible Bernhard Pick,1913 The Bibles of the Far Right Hannah M. Strømmen,2024 The Bibles of the Far Right is about a far right worldview that has taken hold in contemporary Europe It focuses on the role Bibles have come to play in this worldview Starting with the case of far right terrorism in Norway in 2011 the study argues that particular perceptions of the Bible and particular uses of biblical texts have been significant in calls to protect Europe against Islam This study proposes new ways to understand political Bible use today in order to respond to violence inspired by biblical texts The Missionary Review ,1904 Missions and Empire Norman Etherington,2005-07-14 The idea that Christian missions went hand in hand with Imperialism and colonial conquest is challenged here By showing the variety of missions and the vital role played by indigenous men and women this book places missions in a long historical perspective Special attention is paid to emerging themes Leviticus Johnson M. Kimuhu,2008 Whereas many books in this field deal with individual aspects or texts of the study of family laws Leviticus The Priestly Laws and Prohibitions from the Perspective of Ancient Near East and Africa examines extensively biblical texts ancient Near Eastern text and oral traditions from Africa Thus three different cultures converge the world of the Hebrew Bible the world of the ancient Near East and the world of Africa This volume examines in detail the history of the development of ancient laws in general and family laws in particular especially the laws relating to marriages between close relatives Furthermore Johnson M Kimuhu looks at prohibitions and taboos in Africa and the problems they pose with regard to the interpretation and translation of difficult biblical concepts into African languages In that sense Kimuhu provides an example of how to contextualize or integrate African traditions into the study of biblical Hebrew and he also offers insights into the current debate on the study of kinship from the point of view of social cultural anthropology and the Hebrew Bible legal system Teachers students and researchers in biblical studies ancient Near Eastern studies African traditions and social cultural anthropology will find this book helpful in their quest to understand family laws prohibitions and taboos The Anglican Communion and Scripture John Stott,2011-08-01 For the Church the Bible is an authority that talks about morality but the western culture accepts neither authority nor morality The Church must challenge the modern world to enter the world of the Bible and must place the culture of modernism in the spotlight of the Bible Summa Findings Report Canterbury 1993 What does the Bible say about the authority of scripture What links the Holy Spirit and the Holy Bible How does scripture inform the witness of the exploding Church in Tanzania and of a struggling congregation in a religiously plural inner city in the UK Can a Toronto church use the Bible to address the issue of homosexuality How does a bishop use scripture to reform the structure of his diocese in South Africa or to address national injustice in Kenya And is there a particular Anglican view of scripture to contribute to the ecumenical debate In June 1995 the Evangelical Fellowship in the Communion held its first international consultation in its thirty two year history to commend and strengthen biblical authority in the life of the church This book captures the findings of the consultation Bible studies on biblical authority and case studies on the use of scripture in mission The international team of contributors comprises of John Stott UK Vinay Samuel India Michael Nazir Ali Pakistan Mdimi Mhogolo Tanzania Margaret Rodgers Australia Peter Moore Canada Philip Le Feuvre South Africa and Alfredo Cooper Chile along with Graham Kings Cyril Okorocho Elaine Storkey Jesudasan Jeyaraj Chris Wright Ida Glaser and Paddy Benson
