Benn's Media, 2002 The Riddle Exposed: William Stokes, 2021-03 In 1973 the firebombing of the Whiskey Au Go Go nightclub grabbed the headlines in Brisbane unlike any other disaster beforehand 15 people were killed amid the inferno the worst mass murder ever in Australia Rumours were rife Detectives were forewarned but was the firebombing part of an implausible notion to embark on an extortion racket Or was it a scheme for insurance purposes Perhaps it was the act of a disgruntled customer a former employee or someone owed money Politicians from all sides of Parliament demanded quick answers Unbeknown to but a few early in the morning after the fire Billy McCulkin was the first person interviewed by detectives while his wife and young daughters fled from their Highgate Hill house and they only returned to their house after the arrests of John Stuart and Jim Finch Later Mrs McCulkin confided to her co worker as well as a neighbour and her brother that she feared for her safety because she knew her husband and his associates were involved in both the Torino and Whiskey Au Go Go nightclub fires During the months of anxiety for Mrs McCulkin the courtroom appearances of Stuart and Finch heard repeated outbursts from them asserting that detectives had concocted a false verbal confession The subsequent wire swallowing protests by Stuart and Finch were extraordinary Finch even whacked off a piece of his finger but the self mutilating efforts from both achieved nothing The trial being the longest and costliest staged in Queensland proceeded without Stuart or any legal representative for him while he lay handcuffed to a hospital bed a first for any Australian court when a life imprisonment term is mandatory Not long after the Whiskey murder trial and the fifth reported wire swallowing protest from Stuart Mrs Barbara McCulkin and her two daughters disappeared murdered by Vince O Dempsey and Gary Dubois though they were not then brought to stand trial because the case was far too riddled with the standard 1970s police corruption Interwoven around the Waterside Workers Union journal Port News as its publisher William Stokes account of his acquaintanceship with everyone concerned including the bizarre Clockwork Orange gang and a nympho wife who believed she was demoniacally possessed leads to a harrowing tale Expect the unexpected New South Wales Railway and Tramway Magazine, 1923 Sport, War and Society in Australia and New Zealand Martin Crotty, Robert Hess, 2018-02-02 Sport and war have been closely linked in Australian and New Zealand society since the nineteenth century Sport has variously been advocated as appropriate training for war lambasted as a distraction from the war effort and resorted to as an escape from wartime trials and tribulations War has limited the fortunes of some sporting codes and some individuals while others have blossomed in the changed circumstances The chapters in this book range widely over the broad subject of Australian and New Zealand sport and their relation to the cataclysmic world wars of the first half of the twentieth century

They examine the mythology of the links between sport and war sporting codes groups of sporting individuals and individual sportspeople Revealing complex and often unpredictable effects of total wars upon individuals and social groups which as always created chaos and the sporting field offered no exception This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport Hong Kong Phil Mac Donald,2006 This guide to Hong Kong contains in depth information combined with detailed maps and colour photographs Special feature spreads provide facts combined with walks and drives in the surrounding area
