Meeting Place Encounters across Cultures in Hong Kong 1841-1984 presents detailed empirical studies of day to day interactions between people of different cultures in a variety of settings The broad conclusion that there was sustained and multilevel contact between men and women of different cultures will challenge and complicate traditional historical understandings of Hong Kong as a city either of rigid segregation or of pervasive integration Given its geographical location its status as a free port and its role as a center of migration Hong Kong was an extraordinarily porous place People of diverse cultures met and mingled here often with unexpected results The case studies in this book draw both on previously unused sources and on a rigorous rereading of familiar materials They explore relationships between and within the Japanese Eurasian German Portuguese British Chinese and other communities in areas of activity that have often been overlooked from the schoolroom and the family home to the courtroom and international trading concern from the gardens of Government House to boarding houses for destitute sailors In their diverse experiences we see not just East meeting West but also East meeting East and South meeting North in fact a range of complex and dynamic processes that seem to render obsolete any simplistic conception of East meets West Hong Kong's people have too often been ignored in histories of this colonial port This important volume restores them through a series of fascinating case studies of connections collaborations and conflicts across diverse cultures languages and interests Here we have the bedroom law court restaurant school dockyard and offices amongst the other places where Hong Kong's history was really made Robert Bickers author of Out of China: How the Chinese Ended the Era of Western Domination With richly researched studies of heretofore little known aspects of Hong Kong society and history Meeting Place offers perceptive insights into the city's vital role as a focal point for the intersection of diverse cultures social classes institutions and practices Taking us far beyond the hackneyed stereotype of East meets West this volume provides a kaleidoscopic view of the rich multiplicity multi directionality and hybridity of this global hub Emma J Teng author of Eurasian Mixed Identities in the United States: China and Hong Kong 1842-1943
