Newsweek High School Report:

The landscape of school rating systems Benjamin Dalton.,2017-09-28 The rise of the accountability movement in education has resulted in the proliferation of school report cards school ratings and rankings and other kinds of performance reporting for public consumption and policy use To understand the strengths and limitations of school rating systems and the role they play in shaping public perceptions and school improvement practices this paper situates rating systems within the broader field of comparative organizational assessments and neo institutional theory describes school rankings and rating systems in use by states and consumer oriented enterprises and details four aspects of school ratings measurement transformation integration and presentation that affect their use and interpretation

The 2003 Brown Center Annual Report on American Education Tom Loveless,2003 The 2003 Brown Center Report on American Education is the fourth edition of the annual publication It will be released October 22 2003 The first section uses NAEP test data and test scores from the states to evaluate student achievement The second section debunks the popular notion that students are being overwhelmed with homework The third section offers a follow up of last year s study of charter schools with special attention given to charter schools that were once regular public schools and charter schools run by educational management organizations EMOs

Charter School Report Card Shawgi Tell,2016-04-01 What is a charter school Where do they come from Who promotes them and why What are they supposed to do Are they the silver bullet to the ills plaguing the American public education system This book provides a comprehensive and accessible overview and analysis of charter schools and their many dimensions It shows that charter schools as a whole lower the quality of education through the privatization and marketization of education The final chapter provides readers with a way toward rethinking and remaking education in a way that is consistent with modern requirements Society and its members need a fully funded high quality public education system open to all and controlled by a public authority
