Ingram, Klára Tarkó, Susan L. Slocum, 2021-12-03 Women Leisure and Tourism provides a comprehensive discussion of women leisure and tourism through the lens of leisure production and consumption both by women and for women Specifically this text includes a multi cultural perspective to highlight the unique attributes leisure brings to women the role of women in leisure entrepreneurship and the creation of supportive inclusive environments to enhance female well being through the examination of these activities in often overlooked populations The diversity of women's leisure and tourism practices is best perceived through the links between various leisure practices e.g sport outdoor recreation travel and tourism learning crafts events family leisure as well as an understanding of leisure production across cultures and life stages These chapters bring to the forefront many of the challenges inherent in providing leisure and tourism that support the diverse needs of women as well as a look at female innovation that is also often overlooked in leisure research The book includes examples of both applied and conceptual chapters from global perspectives in academic studies The Immeasurable World William Atkins, 2018-07-24 Winner of the Stanford Dolman Travel Book of the Year UK William Atkins is an erudite writer with a wonderful wit and gaze and this is a new and exciting beast of a travel book Joy Williams In the classic literary tradition of Bruce Chatwin and Geoff Dyer a rich and exquisitely written account of travels in eight deserts on five continents that evokes the timeless allure of these remote and forbidding places One third of the earth's surface is classified as desert Restless unhappy in love and intrigued by the Desert Fathers who forged Christian monasticism in the Egyptian desert William Atkins decided to travel in eight of the world's driest hottest places the Empty Quarter of Oman the Gobi Desert and Taklamakan deserts of northwest China the Great Victoria Desert of Australia the man made desert of the Aral Sea in Kazakhstan the Black Rock and Sonoran Deserts of the American Southwest and Egypt's Eastern Desert Each of his travel narratives effortlessly weaves aspects of natural history historical background and present day reportage into a compelling tapestry that reveals the human appeal of these often inhuman landscapes Move Fast and Break Things Jonathan Taplin, 2017-04-18 The book that started the Techlash A stinging polemic that traces the destructive monopolization of the Internet by Google Facebook and Amazon and that proposes a new future for musicians journalists authors and filmmakers in the digital age Move Fast and Break Things is the riveting account of a small group of libertarian entrepreneurs who in the 1990s began to hijack the original decentralized vision of the Internet in the process creating three monopoly firms Facebook Amazon and Google that now determine the future of the music film television publishing and news industries Jonathan Taplin offers a succinct and powerful history of how online life began to be shaped around the values of the men who founded these companies including Peter Thiel and Larry Page overlooking piracy of books music and film while hiding behind opaque business practices and subordinating the privacy of individual users in order to create the surveillance marketing monoculture in which we now live The enormous profits that have come with this concentration of power tell their own story Since 2001 newspaper and music revenues have fallen by 70 percent book publishing film and television profits have also fallen dramatically Revenues at Google in this same period grew from 400 million to 74.5 billion Today Google's YouTube controls 60 percent of all streaming audio business but pay for only 11 percent of the total streaming audio revenues artists receive More creative content is being consumed than ever before but less revenue is flowing to the creators and owners of that content The stakes here go far beyond the livelihood of any one musician or journalist As Taplin observes the fact that more and more Americans receive their news as well as music and other forms of entertainment from a small group of companies poses a real threat to democracy Move Fast and Break Things offers a vital forward thinking prescription for how artists can reclaim their audiences using knowledge of the past and a determination to work together Using his own half century career as a music and film producer and early pioneer of streaming video online Taplin offers new ways to think

Atkins, 2023-07-04T00:00:00+02:00 Un terzo delle terre emerse costituito da deserti in gran parte desolati e inospitali. Perché un ambiente così ostile ci affascina da sempre. Quali corde profonde fa risuonare in noi il luogo metafisico per eccellenza dove terra e cielo si confondono dove la vita umana appesa a un filo. Animato dallo spirito di avventura dei grandi esploratori del passato e spesso armato dei loro libri per ripercorrerne le tracce William Atkins ci conduce alla scoperta di un mondo che tanto interiore quanto fisico. E mentre ci offre il resoconto di sette viaggi compiuti nelle regioni desertiche più remote, meravigliose e spietate al tempo stesso dal Quarto Vuoto dell'Oman al Victoria australiano dal deserto del Gobi a quello degli Stati Uniti ne descrive l'ecosistema, la geologia, la flora e la fauna, i popoli che li abitano e la storia che li ha modellati dalle trivellazioni petrolifere ai test nucleari fino agli odierni raduni hippie. Ma Atkins non è solo un trascrittore di viaggi, il deserto qui esplorato anche come strumento di connessione profonda con noi stessi e con la natura, manifestazione ultima dell'immobilità e del silenzio. Una visione che del deserto trasmette tutta l'immensità e ci ricorda che anche in un mondo dove ogni paesaggio disponibile con un click, avventura e scoperta, solitudine e isolamento sono ancora possibili.

A stunning visual and narrative homage featuring more than 100 black and white and color photographs many never before seen that captures the wonder and metaphysical power of Burning Man past present and future and the magic that draws us to it by the ultimate Burning Man insider. Growing up in 1950s Oregon, brothers Stewart and Larry Harvey rebelled against their small town culture and the conformist norms of Eisenhower's America. Stewart turned to photography, Larry drawn by the siren call of the burgeoning counter cultural movement fled to San Francisco where he met a group of alternative artists like himself. During his frequent visits, Stewart's camera always in hand, photographed the intimate creative worlds of Larry and his friends, images that would chronicle the birth of one of the most important cultural, artistic and social movements of the twentieth century: Burning Man. Filled with the rare insights of Stewart's decades long friendships with his brother and the five other founders as well as the many people who have shaped it Playa Fire is a Burning Man story like no other An artist and writer of striking emotional depth Stewart marries stunning photos reflecting the beauty and grandeur of the desert landscape and the ephemeral hallucinatory beauty of Black Rock City with a compelling narrative journey that captures the landmark festival's spiritual essence Drawn from his personal archives and taken over thirty years at Burning Man many at First Camp his panoramic photographs are accompanied by never before seen memorabilia including Larry's original sketch of the first Man as well as family photos of the young Harvey brothers and their band of merrymakers An exquisite work of art that embodies the radical imagination at the core of this transformative event Playa Fire celebrates both the spectacle and the meditative that is Burning Man It is an enchanting portrait for die hard Burners arts enthusiasts and the intellectually curious fascinated by this iconoclastic beloved cultural phenomenon
