history in favour of real life problems designing a new embassy building furthering aid trade and immigration the closing of missions coping with war in the host country or dealing alternately with headquarters in Ottawa and mercurial heads of government Postings range from India Pakistan Bangladesh and Indochina the UN and NATO the Middle East and Iraq China and Japan Africa and the Caribbean to Western Europe Hungary and the former USSR These essays lend credence and force to the view that embassies often need or choose to take important initiatives and that instructions from Ottawa are often adapted or reinterpreted to deal with rapidly evolving local situations Special Trust and Confidence will appeal to government officials of every stripe to students and teachers of international relations indeed to any reader of worldly bent
