3. Instructional Delivery

The teacher effectively engages students in learning by using a variety of instructional strategies in order to meet individual learning needs.

- Engages and maintains students in active learning.
- Builds upon students' existing knowledge and skills.
- Differentiates instruction to meet the students' needs.
- Reinforces learning goals consistently throughout lessons.
- Uses a variety of effective instructional strategies and resources.
- Uses instructional technology to enhance student learning.
- Communicates clearly and checks for understanding.

Evidence:

- Communicates clearly and checks for understanding: Directions for Focus Lesson posted on chart paper and on student worksheets. Walks around and informally checks independent work on Entrance Card/Warm-Up and provides a sticky note. Uses Exit Cards during Whole Group Closure.
- Differentiates instruction to meet students' needs: All students work on the same activities and receive the same lesson during small group/center time. Teacher spends 15 minutes working with groups A and B and 20 minutes working with group C, who showed difficulty with the material during the Entrance Card/Warm-up activity.

Impacts of Teacher Evaluation and Professional Development on Student

Outcomes Edward Crowe, Rena F. Subotnik, 2012-07-01 This particular case study is designed to explore the extent to which a teacher evaluation system is effective. It also addresses the challenge of measuring student achievement gains when the students in question are already at the high end of the scale, a different yet important problem in an era when many concentrate on low hanging fruit or students on the bubble between failure and marginal performance. By presenting a realworld case, various research methods for studying issues raised by the case and the interchange among scholars engaged in this effort, this volume will allow educational policymakers and practitioners to decide if a proposed approach is compelling and relevant for their settings. Concurrently, a comparison of various research methods addressing a real school based problem provides an important learning tool for the research community and for those who study and make policy. We also believe that the case study and the research designs will be useful for those with responsibility for framing and funding a research agenda in education that utilizes strong research designs applied to topics that matter to student outcomes at all levels of the U S education system and at all levels of pupil performance. And finally, we hope that doctoral programs that seek to prepare the next generation of education researchers will find our approach helpful in their work. The Portfolio

Elizabeth F. Shores, Cathy Grace, 1998 Presents the use of portfolio books to assess children's learning. Provides ten easy to use steps that can be integrated into everyday teaching. A Resource Guide for Elementary School Teaching

Richard Dean Kellough, Patricia Roberts, 1994 A Resource Guide for Elementary School Teaching is a practical, comprehensive and concise methods book designed to engage readers in hands on and minds on learning about effective teaching. A four part organization covers an orientation to elementary school teaching and learning, planning for instruction, strategies, aids, media and resources for effective instruction, assessment and professional development. A new chapter on elementary school children discusses their development and their diversity and specific strategies for working with them. Making Teaching

Work Phil Race, Ruth Pickford, 2007-08-08 This concise book is strongly recommended as an invaluable source both for new teachers and for their mentors who may be well experienced but nevertheless glad of new ideas for coping with the demanding and fundamental shifts in how teaching is undertaken and assessed. ESCaslate Making Teaching Work provides a down to earth, jargon free book for teaching staff in universities and colleges and includes reference to some of the best modern literature on assessment, teaching and feedback. By focusing on the learner in a variety of situations and contexts, the book explores how teachers can help learners to make learning happen. The authors emphasize teaching smarter, helping busy, hard pressed teachers to increase the efficiency as well as effectiveness of their work. Written with both full time and part time staff in mind, the book allows teaching staff to balance the various tasks which make up their workload, including the increasing paperwork and administration they encounter whilst carrying out assessment, teaching and providing feedback to students. The book addresses a wide range of aspects of assessment, learning and teaching in post compulsory education.

including how to provide a supportive learning environment including online learning how to design and manage formative assessment and feedback how to support diverse students including addressing and achieving student satisfaction developing teaching including lecturing small group teaching supporting individual learning and dealing with disruptive students how to use research to improve teaching creatively designing curriculum promoting student employability broadening horizons including widening and deepening participation addressing and achieving student satisfaction It is a self sufficient and thought provoking resource about teaching and learning for all practitioners in post compulsory education
