Noise From The Writing Center Elizabeth Boquet:

Noise From The Writing Center Elizabeth Boquet, 2002-03 In Noise from the Writing Center Boquet develops a theory of noise and excess as an important element of difference between the pedagogy of writing centers and the academy in general. Addressing administrative issues, Boquet strains against the bean counting anxiety that seems to drive so much of writing center administration. Pedagogically, she urges a more courageous practice developed via metaphors of music and improvisation and argues for noise, excess, and performance as uniquely appropriate to the education of writers and tutors in the center. Personal even irreverent in style, Boquet is also theoretically sophisticated and she draws from an eclectic range of work in academic and popular culture from Foucault to Attali to Jimi Hendrix. She includes as well the voices of writing center tutors with whom she conducted research and she finds some of her most inspiring moments in the words and work of those tutors.

The Writing Center Director's Resource Book Christina Murphy, Byron Stay, 2012-11-12 The Writing Center Director's Resource Book has been developed to serve as a guide to writing center professionals in carrying out their various roles, duties, and responsibilities. It is a resource for those whose jobs not only encompass a wide range of tasks but also require a broad knowledge of multiple issues. The volume provides information on the most significant areas of writing center work that writing center professionals both new and seasoned are likely to encounter. It is structured for use in diverse institutional settings, providing both current knowledge as well as case studies of specific settings that represent the types of challenges and possible outcomes writing center professionals may experience. This blend of theory with actual practice provides a multi-dimensional view of writing center work. In the end, this book serves not only as a resource but also as a guide to future directions for the writing center, which will continue to evolve in response to a myriad of new challenges that will lie ahead.

Everyday Writing Center Anne Ellen Geller, Michele Eodice, Frankie Condon, Meg Carroll, Elizabeth Boquet, 2007-04-15 In a landmark collaboration, five co-authors develop a theme of ordinary disruptions, the everyday as a source of provocative learning moments that can liberate both student writers and writing center staff. At the same time, the authors parlay Etienne Wenger's concept of community of practice into an ethos of a dynamic learner-centered pedagogy that is especially well suited to the peculiar teaching situation of the writing center. They push themselves and their field toward deeper, more significant research, more self-conscious teaching.

Theories and Methods of Writing Center Studies Jo Mackiewicz, Rebecca Babcock, 2019-11-01 This collection helps students and researchers understand the foundations of writing center studies in order to make sound decisions about the types of methods and theoretical lenses that will help them formulate and answer their research questions. In the collection, accomplished writing center researchers discuss the theories and methods that have enabled their work, providing readers with a useful and accessible guide to developing research projects that interest them and make a positive contribution. It introduces an array of theories, including genre theory, second language acquisition theory, transfer theory, and disability theory, and guides novice and experienced researchers through the finer points of methods such as ethnography corpus analysis and mixed methods research Ideal for courses on writing center studies and pedagogy it is essential reading for researchers and administrators in writing centers and writing across the curriculum or writing in the disciplines programs

Redefining Roles Megan Swihart Jewell, Joseph Cheattle, 2021-07-12

Redefining Roles is the first book to recognize and provide sustained focus on the presence of professional faculty and graduate student consultants in writing centers A significant number of writing centers employ non peer consultants yet most major training manuals are geared toward undergraduate tutoring practices or administrators This collection systematically addresses this gap in the literature while initiating new conversations regarding writing center staffing Thirty two authors consultants and administrators from diverse centers from large public four year institutions to a private online for profit university provide both theoretical frameworks and practical applications in eighteen chapters Ten chapters focus on graduate consultants and address issues of authority training professional development and mentoring and eight focus on professional and faculty consultant training as well as specific issues of identity and authority By sharing these voices Redefining Roles broadens the very idea of writing centers while opening the door to more dialogue on the important role these practitioners play Redefining Roles is designed for writing center practitioners scholars and staff It is also a necessary addition to help campus administrators in the ongoing struggle to validate the intellectually complex work that such staff performs

CounterStories from the Writing Center Frankie Condon, Wonderful Faison, 2022-04-15

CounterStories from the Writing Center gathers emerging scholars of colour and their white accomplices to challenge some of the most cherished lore about the work of writing centres Writing within an intersectional feminist frame this volume s contributors name and critique the dominant role that white straight cis gendered women have played in writing centre administration as well as in the field of writing centre studies This work will shake the field s core assumptions about itself Practicing what Derrick Bell has termed creative truth telling these writers are not concerned with individual white women in writing centres but with the social political and cultural capital that is the historical birthright of white straight cis gendered women particularly in writing centre studies The essays collected in this volume test defy and overflow the bounds of traditional academic discourse in the service of powerful testimony witness and counterstory CounterStories from the Writing Center is a must read for writing centre directors scholars and tutors who are committed to antiracist pedagogy and offers a robust intersectional analysis to those who seek to understand the relationship between the work of writing centres and the problem of racism Accessible and usable for both graduate and undergraduate students of writing centre theory and practice this work troubles the field's commonplaces and offers a rich envisioning of what writing centres materially committed to inclusion and equity might be and do Contributors Dianna Baldwin Nicole Caswell Mitzi Ceballos Romeo Garcia Neisha Anne Green Doug Kern T Haltiwanger Morrison Bernice Olivas Moira Ozias Trixie Smith Willow Trevino

The Embodied Playbook J. Michael Rifenburg, 2018-08-15 The Embodied Playbook discovers a new approach to understanding student literacy in a surprising place the university athletics department Through analysis of a yearlong case study of the men's basketball team at the University of North Georgia J Michael Rifenburg shows that a deeper and more refined understanding of how humans learn through physical action can help writing instructors reach a greater range of students Drawing from research on embodiment theory the nature and function of background knowledge jazz improvisation and other unexpected domains The Embodied Playbook examines a valuable but unexplored form of literacy the form used by student athletes when learning and using scripted plays All students extracurricular prior knowledge is vital for the work they undertake in the classroom and student athletes understand the strengths and constraints of written text much as they understand the text of game plays through embodying text and performing it in a competitive space The book focuses on three questions What are plays and what do they do How do student athletes learn plays How can teachers of composition and rhetoric better connect with student athletes The Embodied Playbook reveals the literacy of the body as a rich and untapped resource for writing instruction Given the numbers of students who are involved in athletics whether intramural community related or extracurricular Rifenburg's conclusions hold important implications not only for how we define literacy but also for how writing programs can serve all of their students most effectively

The Origins of the Art and Practice of Professional Writing Kathryn Rosser Raign, 2024-04-01 The Origins of the Art and Practice of Professional Writing addresses the classic divide in teaching written skills between rhetoric composition and technical professional communication TPC It explores a body of texts that were created earlier than any yet identified by either field ancient Mesopotamian documents produced in the eighth century BCE The book debunks two myths it shows that rhetoric was practiced consciously and taught systematically long before the Greek civilization existed and because a large swathe of the public while not fully literate had access to the services of scribes not just men but women merchants and even slaves utilized writing as a tool for social justice From their earliest writings humans consciously applied principles of persuasion to the documents that they produced Rather than being two distinct fields rhetoric and professional communication are intertwined in their histories

Writing Centers and the New Racism Laura Greenfield, Karen Rowan, 2011-12-16 Noting a lack of sustained and productive dialogue about race in university writing center scholarship the editors of this volume have created a rich resource for writing center tutors administrators and scholars Motivated by a scholarly interest in race and whiteness studies and by an ethical commitment to anti racism work contributors address a series of related questions How does institutionalized racism in American education shape the culture of literacy and language education in the writing center How does racism operate in the discourses of writing center scholarship lore and how may writing centers be unwittingly complicit in racist practices How can they meaningfully operationalize anti racist work How do they persevere through the difficulty and messiness of negotiating race and racism in their daily practice The conscientious nuanced attention to race in this volume is meant to model what it means to be bold in engagement with these hard questions and to spur the kind of sustained productive multi vocal and challenging dialogue that with a few significant exceptions has been absent from the field

Tutoring Second Language Writers Shanti Bruce, Ben Rafoth, 2016-03-01

Tutoring Second Language Writers a complete update of Bruce and Rafoth's 2009 ESL Writers is a guide for writing center tutors that addresses the growing need for tutors who are better prepared to work with the increasingly international population of students seeking guidance at the writing center Drawing upon philosopher John Dewey's belief in reflective thinking as a way to help build new knowledge the book is divided into four parts Part 1 Actions and Identities is about creating a proactive stance toward language difference thinking critically about labels and the mixed feelings students may have about learning English Part 2 Research Opportunities demonstrates writing center research projects and illustrates methods tutors can use to investigate their questions about writing center work Part 3 Words and Passages offers four personal stories of inquiry and discovery and Part 4 Academic Expectations describes some of the challenges tutors face when they try to help writers meet readers' specific expectations Advancing the conversations tutors have with one another and their directors about tutoring second language writers and writing Tutoring Second Language Writers engages readers with current ideas and issues that highlight the excitement and challenge of working with those who speak English as a second or additional language Contributors include Jocelyn Amevuvor Rebecca Day Babcock Valerie M Balester Shanti Bruce Frankie Condon Michelle Cox Jennifer Craig Kevin Dvorak Paula Gillespie Glenn Hutchinson Pei Hsun Emma Liu Bobbi Olson Pimyupa W Praphan Ben Rafoth Jose L Reyes Medina Guiboque Seong and Elizabeth Adelay Witherite
